Mt. Pleasant Is First Home

A mobile home in Mt. Pleasant will be the first residence of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Michael Klimm, married in St. Mary Catholic Church, Spring Lake, Saturday, Oct. 24.

The bride is the former Donna Marie Currie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Currie of Springlake. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Klimm of Cass Court, Farmington.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis J. Kupinski officiated at the double ring ceremony, and the bride and bridegroom were given in marriage by their parents.

THE BRIDE wore a floor-length full-skirted gown of white lace over tulle. The long sleeves were edged with ruffles as was the high stand-up collar. The empire waist was trimmed with white velvet ribbon.

Her long illusion veil held by a face-framing loop of nylon and petal blossoms accented with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white chrysanthemums and sweet-heart roses.

Mrs. Robert Dodde, the bride's sister as matron of honor, wore a crepe gown in a burnt orange color, with long sleeves, an empire waist and the standing veil attached to strawflowers. The bridesmaids, Kristine Klimm, the bridegroom's sister, and Patricia Krohl of Manistee, wore identical gowns.

Mary and Marcia Currie, the bride's sisters as junior bridesmaids, wore gowns of moss green, gold, teal green and orange chiffon. Each carried a large yellow chrysanthemum with yellow ribbon streamers.

A reception for 300 guests was held in the Community Center, Grand Haven. The couple left for a wedding trip to Traverse City.

The bride is a senior at Central Michigan University and will graduate this December. The bridegroom graduated last June with a BS in business.

Marshall Fredericks will cut the ribbons for the opening ceremony.

Roy Lederson and his son, Bruce, will demonstrate pottery making. Marion Sober, folk arts; Grace Kabel, basketry, macramé and beading; Therese Ohio, Japanese dolls, Origami and basketry; and Pat Scott, apple head dolls.

In all, 30 artists will display their works and give demonstrations.

Tivoli-style hotdogs with toasted onions, catsup and horseradish will be served. The fair is modeled after the quaint shops dotting the Tivoli in Denmark.

On the fair committee are Barbara Scantlin, 349-2006, and Marion Crump, 389-0128.

ried a large yellow chrysanthemum with yellow ribbon streamers.

RICHARD KOSMACK of Detroit was best man. David Currie, the bride's brother, Robert Dodde, and David and Robert Klimm of Cleveland, Ohio, the bridegroom's cousins, were the ushers.

The bride's mother wore a polyester gold crepe sheath with gold metallic trim at the sleeves and neckline. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua silk and wool coat and dress with a small beaded rolled collar.
