

MRS. JESSE WALTER SMITH
(Sandra Kaye Johnson)

Attendants Wear Yellow Silk Gowns

Eight attendants in yellow silk gowns and carrying single long-stemmed yellow roses preceded Sandra Kaye Johnson to the altar of St. Paul Presbyterian Church in Livonia when she exchanged nuptial vows with Jesse Walter Smith.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson of Redford Township, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robson Smith of Troy, Ala. The Rev. William F. Whittle officiated.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a white Italian silk organza gown with fitted bodice of peau d'ange lace, stand-up collar and short sleeves. Scalloped lace outlined the hemline, and lace was applied on the organza train.

The bride's bouquet was multi-colored flowers with yellow roses predominating. Christine Fernandes was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Dixie Brown, Diane Clark, Sharon Cook, Mary Gibson, Karen Hillestad, Joan Krejci and Linda Schacht.

THE BRIDE'S MOTHER selected a lime green chiffon gown with a jeweled neckline and Mrs. Smith wore powder blue crepe with a matching lace bodice.

A dinner reception was held in the Scandia restaurant after the ceremony and the couple then left on a Smoky Mountains honeymoon.

They are making their home in Palm Beach, Fla. The new Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Michigan State University and her husband has a degree from Auburn University in Alabama.

MRS. GERALD ANDERSON
(Diane Zampas)

Diane Zampas Is Wed

Srs. Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox church in Detroit was the setting for the Oct. 9 wedding of Diane Lynn Zampas and Gerald Fraser Anderson.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Zampas of Ross Avenue, Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Anderson of Hubbard Avenue, Livonia.

The Rev. Nicholas L. Geotes officiated, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDE wore an empire gown of white satin accented with a flowing coat and train of lace. Her bouffant veil was elbow-length, and she carried white carnations with a white orchid.

Sherrie Marie Zampas, as maid of honor, wore an empire gown with a sapphire blue velvet bodice and light blue crepe skirt. She carried a colonial mosaic with carnations in two shades of blue and baby's breath.

Deborah Kelbert, the bridesmaid, wore a similar gown in burgundy velvet and pink crepe and carried pink carnations and baby's breath.

Flower girl Barbara Ann Zampas wore white lace trimmed in red and had a basket of red carnations.

Gregory Anderson was best man and Daniel Kelbert seated the guests.

Cathryn Tomchak Bride

Cathryn Sue Tomchak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomchak of Summerwood Road, Farmington, became the bride of Albert Anthony Forte Jr. in a recent candlelight ceremony in St. Fabian Catholic Church in Farmington.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ermine Forte of Birmingham and the late Albert Forte.

Monignor Charles J. Malloy performed the ceremony, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE SHORT-SLEEVED bridal gown was ivory organza with empire waist, scattered pearl and crystal lace applique and chapel train. The bride's veil was elbow-length, and she carried white carnations, yellow roses and baby's breath.

Deborah Tomchak, as maid of honor, wore a sandstone chiffon gown with scoop neckline. A brown satin ribbon with appliqued flowers circled her waist, and she carried yellow and bronze chrysanthemums with baby's breath.

Barbara Vasu was the bridesmaid and wore a similar gown.

THE BEST MAN was Robert Forte, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were Robert Bianco, Timothy Manganello and Thomas Valentine.

Psychologist To Give Talk

Parents As Psychologists will be the topic of Dr. Joseph DeLoach as guest speaker for "Fathers' Night" in the Bulman Nursery Inc.

The meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m. in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Five Mile near Inkster, Livonia.

Dr. DeLoach is assistant professor of psychology at Oakland Community College. A field trip to the Livonia main fire station is planned for this month for the nursery children.

Those interested in nursery membership should call Delores Fisher, 427-5341.

Bridegroom Makes Wedding Rings

Julie Anne Ross and Lee R. Kvarnberg exchanged rings and gold wedding rings especially created by the bridegroom when they were married in the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth.

Dr. Henry Walch conducted the candlelight ceremony in which the bride and bridegroom, each with a candle, together lit one large candle to signify their union.

The rings, designed by Kenneth Bauman, close friend of the bridegroom, also was part of the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Erskine Ross of Harding Avenue, Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Gustaf Kvarnberg of North Muskegon are parents of the bridegroom.

ESCORTEE to the altar by her father, the bride wore a candlelight gown of white line gown with mandarin neckline, leg-of-mutton sleeves and detachable chapeau train. Her flowers were stephanotis mounted on a Bible that the bridegroom's grandmother had carried.

Roseanne Price, the bride's cousin and maid of honor, and Diana Parlette and Carleen Hoog, the bridesmaids, wore gowns with ivory lace ruffled bodices and satin skirts in shades of moss green, brown and gold.

Flower girl Cristin Kvarnberg and Ingrid Fries, nieces of the bridegroom, were dressed in yellow and carried baskets of yellow and white roses. Douglas Rathburn carried the rings on a pillow designed and made by the bride's mother.

ASSISTING the bridegroom were Richard Kait as best man and Bob Klein as William Long as ushers.

Mrs. Ross was in deep rose faille and the bridegroom's mother wore an A-line gown of peach satin.

During the dinner reception for 150 guests in Botsford Inn, a congratulatory telegram arrived from the bride's brother who is serving in Vietnam and was on leave in Hawaii.

The couple went to Canada for their honeymoon and are living in Ann Arbor where the bridegroom is a senior architectural student at the University of Michigan and the bride is a sophomore majoring in special education.
