

New program explores divorce recovery

Resident producer Jim Anastasio will bring a television series of importance to our television audience, "Divorce Recovery," co-sponsored with Ward Presbyterian Church, Single Point Ministries.

The program is discussion and lecture pertaining to the realities of divorce. Several program topics are "Identity," "Getting Your Ex in Focus" and "Forgiveness."

Jim Anastasio, Mel Hatcher and Karen Messelien are resident producers who are teaming up to offer Farmington, Novi and Farmington Hills diverse programs. Jim, Mel and Karen met in our television workshops. The team effort harnesses energy and creativity and improves the quality of the production options.

As Channel 12 television audience, we encourage you to call our production department to repeat a television program on Friday. Be sure to request a time most convenient for your viewing preference, 553-7303 (Production Department).

Todd Whitman, SWOCC production specialist, is requesting that you save your footage of funny mistakes, alias bloopers. Drop them off at our office and ask for Todd, 473-7266.

- Wednesdays, 7:30-9 p.m. — Inner Sanctum.

Show's focus: holiday crafts

The third annual Holiday Craft Show at Botsford General Hospital will take place next week.

Hours are 3-7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 12, and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday, Nov. 13.

The event, which includes 75 artists and their handcrafted wares, takes place at Botsford General Hospital, 28050 Grand River, Farmington Hills.

Artists' booths will fill the entire administration building, including the community room, classrooms, the concourse and hallways. Botsford will offer box lunches and other refreshments.

Many of the past favorite artists will be returning, plus a number of new artists. Jewelry, stained glass pieces, holiday pottery, paintings, woodcraft — including everything from whimsical children's toys to practical wall shelves — hand knitted and crocheted items will be featured.

sponsored by the Employee Activity Program, with proceeds being directed to the various services and programs offered to Botsford Hospital employees and volunteers.

Trips to Toronto and Las Vegas, plus one-day trips to Frankmouth, the Eastern Market, Greentown, Boblo Island, the hydroplane show and others have been planned for hospital employees and volunteers, with costs offset by money earned from last year's Holiday Craft Show.

New this year is a Breakfast with Santa for the children of Botsford General Hospital employees and volunteers. Special holiday surprises are being planned for the youngsters attending. This event is also underwritten by money earned as a result of the Holiday Craft Show.

Botsford General Hospital administrators consider the Employee Activity Program an important part of their quality of worklife.
