

Champion-McClain

Tina Lisa McClain and David Scott Champion were married Sept. 26 at Faith Lutheran Church, Grand Rapids, with the Rev. Robert Lignel officiating.

She is the daughter of Ralph and Nancy Milanowski of Alondale. He is the son of Robert and Phyllis R. Champion of Farmington Hills, formerly of Plymouth.

Maid of honor was Carla Brower. Bridesmaids were Dee DeJonge, Faith Bennett, Cella Jensen and Cabbie Jones.

Best man was Barry Boueches. Groomsmen were David Naudzanski, Tim Lilly, Mike Hees and Kim Allen. Ushers were Robert J. Champion, Steven Champion and David Milanowski.

The bride is a graduate of Grand Valley State College and is employed as a surgical nurse for a dentist. Her groom is a graduate of Plymouth Salem High School and Grand Valley State College. He is employed by the Grand Rapids Board of Education. The couple will live in Wyoming, Mich.

Hempel-Schellenberg

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hempel of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Grace, to Matthew John Schellenberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Schellenberg of Highland, Mich.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Harmon High School and William Tyndale College, employed as office manager for Griffin's of Farmington Hills. Her fiancé is a graduate of Milford High School and William Tyndale College. He is a self-employed painter.

An April wedding is planned in Southfield Community Church.

Class for diabetes set

A series of six diabetes classes will begin at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 21 in the auditorium of the Oakland County Health Division's South office, 27725 Greenfield, Southfield.

The classes are for adult diabetics and their family members. They are taught by a public health nurse and a registered dietitian. Topics that will be discussed include the nature of the disease, dietary management, medications and suggestions for coping with everyday problems.

There are no fees charged for these classes, however, registration is necessary and may be made by calling 424-7042.

Jewish Vocational Service (JVS), a non-sectarian agency, offers an ongoing Displaced Homemaker Program funded by the Michigan Department of Labor, Office of Women and Work, for individuals in Wayne and Oakland Counties.

Displaced homemakers are women who, through divorce, separation, widowhood, or disability of spouse, have lost their source of economic support. After spending a substantial number of years in the home caring for family members, displaced homemakers find returning to the job market a difficult transition.

The JVS Displaced Homemaker Program provides vocational assessment, vocational counseling, job seeking skills and job placement assistance. Women who need to become financially self-sufficient, who need a boost toward entering the job market after many years in the home, are invited to contact JVS.

Eligibility is based on marital and employment status. There are no income guidelines.

Interested applicants are encouraged to call Sherri Lumberg or Louise George at 559-5000 during business hours.

Enrollment for the program will take place at the JVS Southfield facility Mondays, Jan. 25, Feb. 15, March 7 and March 28.

Chorale calls for members

The Suburban Chorale of Livonia, a women's chorus, will begin preparing for spring performances and welcomes new members of all voices to open rehearsals at 7:30 p.m. Wednesdays, Jan. 13, 20 and 27, in Clarenceville High School on Middlebelt north of Seven Mile.

The repertoire consists of popular music and selections from Broadway musicals. Sight reading ability is not necessary.

For information, call Vada Mathe-ny, 427-9553, or Bea Scaglione, 626-5028.
