TEL-12 MALL in Southfield has Santa in what looks like a giant igloo, where last Friday he began taking orders from good little girls and boys — some a trifle scared. (Observer photo)

"WERE YOU a good little girl?" Santa seems to be asking Lisa D'Orazio, 4, of Livonia. Though she looks a trifle apprehensive, it's likely Lisa behaved beautifully during her visit to the Christmas visitor at Livonia Mall. (Observer photo by Vince Witke)

"CAN YOU GIVE ME a big smile?" Santa Claus asks this young visitor at Westland Shopping Center. Despite a blustery day, the jolly gent from polar lands arrived safely by helicopter last Friday and, after distributing popcorn balls with the help of his lady pixies, began taking youngsters' Christmas orders. NORTHLAND CENTER was a packed house of boys and girls and mommies and daddies last Friday when Santa Claus, his white plumage blown by a gusty breeze, waved a cheery greeting to open the Christmas season. (Observer photo)

LNB Has High Hopes For No. 7

A projected population of 45,000 persons within 1.5 miles of Six Mile and Newburgh Road has prompted Livonia National Bank's opening of its seventh branch office there. Ribbon cutting ceremonies were held recently, and open house invitations have been extended to the public through Dec. 1. Registering visitors will be eligible for one of 100 holiday turkey prizes, refreshments and souvenirs. Elvio D. Dougherty, bank president, and Chester A. Lips, branch manager, announced also a prepaid interest portable color television set is available for new savings accounts of $720 or more on deposit for five years. Dougherty noted that area developers have announced plans for a regional shopping center and additional high-way oriented business for the area, which is near the planned Schoolcraft-Haggerty 196 freeway intersection.

Madonna Sets 2nd Term Registration

Registration for second semester classes at Madonna College will take place Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 7 and 8, at 1-3 and 7-9 p.m. on each day. Operated by the Felician Sisters, Madonna is located at 36800 Schoolcraft, Livonia. In-service teachers may be interested in the Foundations of Education course to be offered in two four-week blocks in January and April, with classes on Mondays and Wednesdays, 7-9 p.m., in the first block. A directed teaching course is also scheduled for out-of-state graduates who wish to meet Michigan state certification requirements. Late afternoon courses beginning at 4 p.m. will include the following: French literature, intermediate Spanish, calculus, introduction to social work, linguistics and the English language, dramatic arts for children, and advanced studio problems in art. Among the evening classes scheduled after 6 p.m. are the following: art appreciation, art teachers institute, economics and consumer education, minority groups in America, basic mathematics, readings in modern philosophy, social psychology, speech arts and forms, sacramental theology, and developmental reading for improvement of speed and comprehension. One section of the children's literature course will be offered on Saturdays 9-11 a.m. Second semester classes begin Jan. 11. Tuition fee is $32 per semester hour. Questions will be answered by the registrar 425-8000 Ext. 3.

CNB To Pay 30 Cents

The board of directors of City National Bank of Detroit has declared a regular quarterly cash dividend of 30 cents a common share payable Dec. 15, 1970 to shareholders of record Dec. 1, 1970.

THE NEW BUILDING features modern contemporary design with a dark brick facing accented by a light plaster trim. Inside, the decor of the spacious lobby complements the building's exterior design while lending itself to the bank's rapid-moving teller-line system. There are seven indoor teller windows and two drive-in windows. The building's first floor accommodates the bank lobby, accounting and consoli-
