MRS. GARY SINGLETON
(Nancy Altenbernt)

Singletons Wed In Plymouth

Nancy Altenbernt and Gary Singleton recently exchanged marriage vows in an evening ceremony in the First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth, with Dr. Henry Walch officiating.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Altenbernt of Plymouth, was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Roland Jarosky of Williamsburg, Mich., and Ray Singleton of Northville.

All carried daisies, baby roses and carnations.

Wearing a miniature replica of the honor attendant's dress was flower girl Vicki Clark, cousin of the bride. She carried a white basket of daisies, roses and carnations. Craig Lee, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

CARL SINGLETON, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Seating the guests were Michael Singleton and Joe Jarosky, brothers of the bridegroom, and Gerald Garaniglia.

A floor-length gown of white chiffon over satin was the bride's choice. Her veil was shoulder-length, and she carried carnations, stephanotis and yellow roses.

MAID OF HONOR Karen LaGrew of Plymouth wore a yellow chiffon gown with a lace bodice and bridesmaids Kathy Bonk, Marsha Hoelt and Judith Mennick, all of Plymouth, wore similar gowns in an apricot shade.

The bride's mother wore a baby blue dress with matching lace coat and Mrs. Jarosky chose a pink dress with coat ensemble.

A reception for 200 hundred guests in the Blue Bonnet Hall in Garden City followed the wedding.

After a week's honeymoon in Washington and Pennsylvania, the newlyweds are making their home in Westland.

AVA ABRAAM

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Abraam of Sunter Avenue, Redford Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ava Helen, to Ronald Robert Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Norborne Avenue, Redford Township. Both attended Redford Union High School and the prospective bridegroom is employed by Harold's Frame Shop. The wedding will be Dec. 4.

USAF Officers. Married

Two USAF officers were married in Chapel One of Chanute Air Force Base in Illinois Nov. 7. Lt. Candace Jean Murray became the bride of Capt. John Joseph Muir of Farmington.

son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Muir of Bay Tree Drive, Farmington, is a graduate of the University of Detroit High School and Northern Michigan University. He was commissioned in the USAF in 1965. He is presently a standardization instructor pilot at Laughlin AFB, Texas, where the couple plans to live, following their wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico.

gown with a scoop neckline and an empire waist trimmed with Alencon lace, pearls and crystals. The wide tubular train extended to chapel length and was appliqued across the hem with a garland of Alencon lace. She wore a bouffant veil of ivory silk illusion with a coronet of lace and pearls and she carried cymbidium orchids.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Lutheran General Hospital School of Nursing, Park Ridge, Ill. She was commissioned in the Air Force Nurse Corps and has been stationed at Maxwell Air Force Base, Ala. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. James B. Murray of Rantoul, Ill.

Chaplain Major Justin H. Beizen officiated at the wedding and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

MRS. LINDA STEWARD was matron of honor and Charlene Eames was the bridesmaid. Both are cousins of the bride. They wore turquoise chiffon floor length gowns, as did Wendy Steward, the flower girl.

Marcella Neal Married

MRS. ROBERT WORTH KUSCH
(Marcella Elaine Neal)

St. Andrew Episcopal Church in Livonia was scene of the Nov. 27 wedding of Marcella Elaine Neal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Neal of Farmington, and Robert Worth Kusch.

The Rev. Kenneth Davis and the Rev. Douglas Smith conducted the double-ring ceremony and communion service from the "Book of Common Prayer." The bride's father gave her in marriage.

The bridegroom is the son of George Kusch and Mrs. Alma Kusch, both of Chicago.

WHITE SATIN and lace fashioned the bride's full-length dress with a cathedral train. Her flowers were red roses and baby's breath in an old-fashioned nosegay.

Susan Melissa Neal, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a dark green velvet gown with ivory satin trim and carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

The bridegroom's cousin, Gene Coe, was best man, and the ushers were the bride's brothers, Major James T. Neal of the U.S. Air Force and David R. Neal, and Stephen Ely.

MRS. NEAL wore a pink silk jacket dress and Mrs. Kusch was in peacock blue.

She is a doctoral candidate at U-M, and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Lambda Delta, and Phi Kappa Phi.

The dinner reception for 100 guests was held in Botsford Inn.

The couple will live in Cleveland Heights, where the bridegroom is English professor and poet at Case Western Reserve University.

Her husband graduated from Valparaiso University and earned his master's and Ph.D. degree at Northwestern.
