

Hill-Dale Arranges Christmas Walk

FARMINGTON Hill and Dale Garden Club of Farmington will present its third Christmas walk Sunday, Dec. 6, from 1 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The walk begins in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Sztanyo, 34185 Hunters Row, with Christmas "Treasures from Afar", then on to Mr. and Mrs. David Camp, 32272 Heathstone, where we find "Holiday Traditions," featuring wreaths and cones.

"An Old-Fashioned Affair at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Ohrman, 30106 Fox Grove. "Holiday Tables" will be the highlight at Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Simmons, 6840 East Nashway, where Christmas is for family and friends.

THE THEME At Mr. and Mrs. M.J. Byrne's, 7359 Coach Lane, is "Time to Deck the Halls with Greens." Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, 29012 Summerwood is where we find "Christmas from the Old World" and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Piercecchi, 30021 Pipers Lane, present "Christmas is Contemporary, in a Natural Manner."

Tea will be served in the Farmington Community Center, located on Farmington Rd., north of 10 Mile, along with a boutique featuring many items made by the members of Hill and Dale.

This event helps support the garden therapy program for 200 children, in 19 classrooms, of the special education department of the Farmington Public Schools.

This fall the garden ladies, along with their "green thumb" children, planted over a thousand tulip, crocus and other assorted bulbs around nine schools for the pleasure of all to see and enjoy next spring.

THE CLASSROOMS are visited twice a month from October through June with fresh and dried material for these "special" children.

Tickets at $2 containing maps and a list of homes may be purchased by calling ticket chairman, Mrs. John Neitzel, 476-7376, or area chairmen, Mrs. M.J. Byrne, 628-7467; Mrs. Dennis Goulette, 476-5577; Mrs. Wm. C. Stairs, 476-9463; or obtained day of walk at the Boutique and Tea ad at any of the homes.

The Christmas walk will be well marked by Christmas tree signs made by the special education classes of Farmington Junior High.

Volunteers Called For Dimes March

Recruitment of volunteers to aid in the March of Dimes starts this week in Oakland County. The march will take place Jan. 21-28.

Area women who wish to aid the drive are asked to call Joyce Thomas, 681-2420.

HOME TOUR MAP—The following Farmington homes are included in the Christmas Walk sponsored Dec. 6 by the Hill and Dale Garden Club: 34185 Hunters Row; 32273 Heathstone; 30106 Fox Grove; 6840 East Nashway; 7359 Coach Lane; 29012 Summerwood; and 30021 Pipers Lane. Tea will be served in the Farmington Community Center on Farmington Rd. north of 10 Mile.

Residents Get Service Awards

Five Farmington residents were among 152 Ford Motor Co. employees who received "outstanding service awards" in the annual Ford community service awards program for the Detroit area.

For their public service activities they were given plaques featuring an engraved commendation from Henry Ford II.

Activities on which the awards are based include volunteer service in elective or appointive positions, politics, citizens' groups, education and charitable organizations, youth and recreation programs, community fund campaigns and special projects of clubs and service or church groups.

The local recipients were Joe C. Kilmer of 29972 Glenarden, citizens' groups and youth activities; Peter Devich of 22579 Gill, citizens' groups; Stephen E. Hack of 20357 Fiddler's Green, citizens' groups and service club programs; William A. Devin Jr. of 29762 Old Bedford, citizens' groups and youth activities; Milton P. Lilley of 24056 Broadview, education and charitable organization programs and youth activities.

REACHING To Another City

McCabe's service to families in need reaches far beyond the Detroit area. Desiring a loved one to be interred in another city, many families have found it advisable to call on McCabe's. In order to provide this vital service McCabe's maintains contacts with funeral directors in all parts of the United States and Canada.

LOVELY — One of the homes to be visited on Hill and Dale Garden Club's Christmas walk this Sunday in Farmington is that of Mrs. Rudolph Sztanyo, 34185 Hunters Row. For three years, Mrs. Sztanyo has been making ornaments by hand which she hangs on an all-white Christmas tree. Interspersed with the ornaments are white felt doves. (Evert photo)
