"THESE BATTERIES HAVE A LOT GOING FOR YOU."

—Chuck Yeager

For starters, Delco Freedom, Dura Power and Voyager Batteries are maintenance-free.

That means you never have to give them a second thought. They start you fast and sure when you crank up your engine.

Thanks to Delco's design, early battery failure caused by low fluid levels is prevented. And the built-in "green eye" lets you know the state of charge at a glance.

Delco's got batteries for most cars and trucks, both domestic and imported. Plus batteries for boats and RVs. The limited warranty's good nationwide. Check it out where you shop for auto parts.

Saginaw Valley gets Catholic Central duo

By Steve Kowalski
staff writer

A pair of Redford Catholic Central basketball stars signed national letters of intent Tuesday night with Saginaw Valley State University.

Bill Vitli and Brian Dugas, both first-team All-Observer selections last winter, signed with the Division II school from the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

Vitli, a 6-foot-5 post player, averaged 14.7 points, 11.2 rebounds and 4.2 blocked shots per game for CC, which lost in the Class A regional finals to eventual state champion Detroit. Cooley, Dugas, a 6-3 shooting guard, poured in 20.4 points and 6.5 rebounds a game.

The two visited the Cardinals' campus Friday and decided they'll be roommates and teammates next year.

"I really liked it; the guys are great up there and Coach (Bob) Pratt keeps track of his players and their classes," said Dugas, a 4.0 student at CC who will major in sports medicine.

A HANDFUL OF Division I schools recruited Vitli, but none offered a scholarship. Central Michigan, Eastern Michigan, Kent State and Akron were among the schools that showed an interest in Vitli.

The center played with his back to the basket at CC, and Division I schools weren't convinced he could do so at their level.

"Division I schools thought I was too small; they wanted me to play a small forward position," said Vitli, who plans to major in business management. "At Saginaw Valley, I'll get a chance to put up, and I like that. They told me I'd have a pretty good chance — if not to start — to play right away next year."

Pratt compared Vitli to 6-6 Herb Schoenke, Saginaw Valley's leading basketball

scorer and rebounder last year as a sophomore.

"Bill can catch the ball and dunk it," Pratt said. "Both Dugas and Vitli are potential starters next season. Brian is a Steve Alford type. He's very smart and adept at scoring."

Along with playing time, another attraction to the Division II school was a 4,000-seat basketball arena that will open next January inside a new $18.7 million athletic complex.

"I was real impressed with the coaches and the new arena," Vitli said.

A year ago, few people gave Dugas a chance of even playing college basketball. But he became one of the Catholic League's best players this year, and he considered offers from Wayne State, John Carroll and Albion before settling on Saginaw Valley.

DUGAS ALSO was accepted academically at Notre Dame but thought his chances of walking on the basketball team in South Bend were slim at best.

"I didn't know if I wanted to go to Notre Dame and give up basketball," Dugas said. "There was nothing guaranteed, and I wanted a guarantee."

Including Schoenke and Wayne Memorial product Mark Robinson, early lettermen return next year for Saginaw Valley, which finished 9-19 last winter. Both Vitli and Dugas look forward to the new environment.

"Coach Pratt told us if we jump in with both feet and are not tentative or scared, we'll get quality playing time," Dugas said.
