in a city and our own gas and weight tax rebate from the state would be greater."

He warned, however, that problems similar to those that plagued Warren may arise with funds from HUD. "People may say they don't want HUD aid if we have to operate under its regulations."

HALL BLAMES renters for the condition of some of the homes in Section 36.

"Those houses have the steepest shade trees in the township," he said. "The houses owned by the people who live in them are neat and clean, but the renters just don't care. I don't blame the landlords for treating them like they do."

"We desperately need low cost housing for senior citizens, but there isn't the labor supply in the area that would require any more than that."

The Sperry Rand Corp. entered the new computer sweepstakes as its Univac Division introduced a new data processing system three to five times more powerful than anything ever developed by the company.

Harrison Concert Is First One

The music department of Harrison High School will present its first winter concert on Wednesday, Dec. 9, at 8 p.m. in the school.

The program will feature the concert orchestra, the Madrigal Singers, the girls' choir, the girls' ensemble, the mixed choir and Harrison's symphony band.

This will be the first concert of the season for the choir, which will be directed by Mrs. Joan MacKenzie, and the second appearance of the year for Harrison's band and orchestra, which will be conducted by R. Paul Barber.

The program was originally scheduled to be held in Harrison's auditorium but due to construction delays it will be presented in Harrison's gymnasium. The public is invited to the first concert ever to be presented in Harrison.

HIGH HONOR — Jeff Jarvis, a member of Farmington Boy Scout Troop 167, received the Eagle Scout insignia at a recent court of honor held by the troop. He attends Harrison High School and is a member of the wrestling team and has been on the cross country team. He has been an assistant patrol leader and junior assistant scout leader. At the same court of honor, Jeff's father, Max Jarvis, received the Eagle Badge, which he earned in 1945 and never received because he had enlisted. (Evert photo)

By MARIE LONG GR 4-3114

Airman First Class Edward Hohler is in Taiwan where he will be stationed with the Air Force for the next two years.

His wife Susan flew to Taiwan to join him this past week. Sue is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frieling of Farmington Rd. Greg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Hohler Sr. of Oakland Ave., Farmington.

Kenneth Harmer Sr. of Greenville spent several weeks with his son Kenneth and family recently on 10 Mile Rd. Mr. Harmer is a retired mailman. He also visited the Arnold Henkes of Power Rd. and many other friends. Arnold and Kenneth are both retired from the post office.

James Farren of Farmington Rd. is in Room 119 Brent General Hospital, Detroit. Jim is a member of the Farmington Drop-in Center. We all wish Jim a speedy recovery.

Sam Mekjian is hospitalized in Sinai Hospital, Detroit, Room 2121. He hasn't been getting his mail due to a mix-up in his address. We wish Sam a speedy recovery. Our sympathy goes to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sheedy of Kendallwood Dr. whose sister passed away this past week in Illinois. The Sheedys will be home this week.

"When a man begins to think seriously of saving for a rainy day, it's probably a rainy day."

Winston Churchill

It was Winston Churchill who also said: "Thrift is an excellent virtue, especially in an ancestor." But Andrew Carnegie said it all with this quote: "The best way to accumulate money is resolutely to bank a fixed portion of your income, no matter how small the amount." And what better place to do just that than Metropolitan National Bank of Farmington? You'll get the highest interest paid anywhere on savings and you can do your banking on SATURDAY. Start saving for that rainy day, now. Drive-in or walk-in banking, Metro's the place to save.
