Time and money-saving information is featured in the Customer Guide pages of Michigan Bell's 1988 Ameritech PagesPlus Farmington Hills Neighborhood telephone directory.

Mary Jo Ficarek, local public relations manager, said the directory, which will be distributed to area customers in May, is easier to use and more useful than ever.

"We hope all our customers will take full advantage of the wealth of information in the directory," Ficarek said. "The book really serves as a helpful community resource as well as a telephone directory."

The Customer Guide pages in the front of the directory have been updated this year and include rates for many types of local service and telephone options, and step-by-step directions for using Custom Calling features, she said.
