

Year Of Crisis Faces Voters

GOV. GEORGE ROMNEY
'GOP Has The Team ...'

BY GOV. GEORGE ROMNEY
Editor's Note: Gov. George Romney, first elected in 1962, was asked to analyze the races on behalf of his Republican party for the readers of Observer Newspapers. Following is his report.

The year 1968 has become a year of crisis for most Americans---

- Crisis in foreign affairs, from the continuing death and destruction in Vietnam to the Russian tanks in the streets of Prague;
- Crisis on our streets and in our daily lives as violence and crime wage a growing contest with the forces of law and order;
- Crisis in our economy, from the declining spending power of the average citizen to the increasing effects of strikes by public employees;
- Crisis in our metropolitan areas, as answers are sought for the housing, job and educational needs of growing numbers of urban and suburban dwellers.

These and other crises also make 1968 a year of decision.

FOR THIS IS an election year, a time when the American citizen of voting age can help determine the course of his public institutions in the immediate future. On Nov. 5, some 3.8 million registered Michigan voters will be eligible to help make that determination.

Without question the most important single decision will be the selection of our nation's leadership for the next four years.

The Republican Party has nominated former Vice-President Richard M. Nixon for the presidency and Maryland Governor Spiro Agnew for the vice-presidency.

As a team, they offer the American people the only opportunity to significantly change the potentially disastrous foreign and domestic policies of the present administration. If our policies are wrong, as I believe they are, then it seems reasonable that a change is in order.

This is why I endorsed and urge the people of Michigan to vote for Richard M. Nixon and Spiro Agnew.

AT THE STATE level, this election breaks with the past. As a result of the four-year terms accorded by our new State Constitution, this is the first even-year election devoid of races for governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state and attorney general. There is also no election this year in Michigan for the United States Senate.

The only statewide races are for four educational boards and one seat on the Michigan Supreme Court. While they may lack the glamour of others, these races and their outcome will affect millions of Michigan citizens now and in the future.

The administration of education belongs to the citizens, not to the special interests who are seeking to dominate our colleges, universities and local schools. Such a goal, I firmly believe, can best be accomplished with election of these Republican candidates:
