Dunckel Having 2 Concerts

By GAIL KOURIS

O.E. Dunckel Junior High's choir announces its 13th annual Christmas concert, "Christmas in Song," to be presented Dec. 11, 12 at 8 p.m.

Student tickets will be sold for 75 cents and adult tickets for $1. Tickets may be purchased from choir members or at the door. Choir director is Eddy Ellegood who's well known in Farmington.

Dunckel's band will hold its annual Winter Concert Dec. 17 under the direction of Larry Dettler and assisted by Tom Penkins, a student teacher from Central Michigan University.

WE ARE VERY proud of our undefeated eighth and ninth grade football teams.

The eighth grade won six games and the ninth grade team has won five. Sean Whalen coaches the eighth graders and Don Kuick coaches the ninth graders.

Dunckel's ninth grade basketball season started Dec. 3 against Power Junior High at Power. The student council vs. student faculty exchange will be held Dec. 14.

A ski club has been formed at Dunckel. The club is not school sponsored but the two teachers acting as advisors are Greg Grodzicki and Miss Ginny Jenkins. Student officers are: Brad Pease, president; Skip Campbell, vice president; Beth Byrleline secretary; and Sue Lockwood, treasurer.

REHEARSALS for the school's second annual dramatic production, "Meet Me in St. Louis," are in progress.

The play is being presented under the direction of Mrs. Pat Hinman, English department, and Mrs. Jacobs, speech department. The play will be in March.

The first issue of Dunckel's student newspaper, "The Warpath," was offered to the student body on Nov. 26. It is supervised by Miss Candace Turnaciff and David Litogot.

For the first time in Farmington educational history, foreign students will be studying here at the junior high level. Through the "Youth For Understanding" committee, O.E. Dunckel will host two students from Latin countries.

The exchange students will arrive in January and complete the school year, both studying under the college preparatory curriculum.

Linda Worthington's family will welcome Miss Margarita Schaeffer from Chile while Miss Cecilia Basile from Argentina will make her American home with Catherine Forsythe's family.
