Stribley-Wall Vows Spoken

In a double-ring candlelight service in the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth Nov. 14, Kathryn Wall became the bride of Stephen Stribley.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wall of Beck Road, Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stribley of Grand Rapids, formerly of Plymouth.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an empire gown of ivory silk organza with alençon lace applique on the bodice, bishop sleeves and chapel train. Her illusion and lace veil was floor-length, and she carried white roses and baby mums.

Mrs. Richard Schryer, the bride's sister, was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were another sister, Mrs. Andrew Hasley, and the bridegroom's sisters, Jeanne and Sue Ellen Stribley.

Their chiffon gowns—two in gold and two in moss green—had ivory lace trim, and their matching headpieces were velvet Dior bows trimmed with roses and baby's breath. All carried yellow and bronze roses and mums.

Thomas Stribley was best man for his brother, Ushers were David Wall, brother of the bride, Richard Schryer, her brother-in-law, and David Weinans of Holt, Mich.

MRS. WALL chose a beige brocade dress and coat ensemble and Mrs. Stribley's dress was powder blue knit.

A dinner reception for 100 guests in Hillside Inn followed the ceremony, and the couple honeymooned in Canada.

The bridegroom will be stationed in Ankara, Turkey, with the U. S. Military police and the bride, a teacher in South Lyon schools, plans to join him there at a later date.

Both are graduates of Plymouth High School. The bride attended Eastern Michigan University and the bridegroom Central Michigan University.

Women's weatherproof boots, $12.99

Now you've got to admit it. You've seen weatherproof boots before, but they never looked like this. They were never made of sleek, clingy stretch vinyl to hug your legs. They never had a full-length zipper on the side. Or a warm, cozy lining. Well, they do now. Thank goodness.

This Christmas, give her weatherproof boots from Thom McAn. In brown or black. They're soft and warm and protective. Like you.
