A NEW FRIEND--Charles Shafer, right, made a new friend recently when he met screen star, Robert Mitchum. The subject of conversation was Mitchum's newest picture "Ryan's Daughter," which is to have its Michigan premiere in the Quo Vadis Theatre Christmas Day. Shafer is president of the Wayne Amusement Co., which owns the Quo Vadis Theatres in Westland. Starting with Mitchum in the MGM historical epic are Trevor Howard, Christopher Jones, John Mills and Sarah Miles. "Ryan's Daughter" is set in rural Ireland during the turbulent Irish Revolution and has Mitchum cast in the unusual role of a gentle school teacher.
