

Bride Writes Own Marriage Vows

Katherine Hurtik wrote the marriage vows she and Kenneth Cornett exchanged in a Nov. 13 ceremony in the First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth.

The Rev. Lewis S. Brown Jr. officiated. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Louis V. Hurtik Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Cornett, both of Plymouth.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight gown with a long train and a waist-length mantilla of Belgian lace. Her flowers were tiny white and yellow roses.

Maid of honor Tina Marie Sobczynski wore a gold empire gown and carried three orange roses. Bridesmaids Patti Hurk, sister of the bride, Pat McBride, Beth Kummer and Carol Eisenstein, wore single gowns in moss green and each carried two orange roses.

ATTENDING the bridegroom were Ron Pagan as best man and Louie Hurk, brother of the bride, Gene Lesluk; Fred Boltrick and Jim Forbes as groomsmen. For the wedding and reception for 175 that followed in the church basement, Mrs. Hurk chose a tan and brown knit suit and Mrs. Cornett was in orange chiffon. The honeymoon trip was to Toronto.

Seminarians Sing Mass

Eight seminarians sang the nuptial mass that united Linda Jean Ehlers and Donald T. Lorenz in marriage Nov. 21 in the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church in Detroit.

The ceremony was arranged by Lewis Cruse II, one of the students from St. John Seminary in Plymouth. Officiating was the Rev. A.M. Hutting, long-time friend of the bride's family.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Ehlers of Kiltartan Avenue, Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lorenz of Detroit are parents of the bridegroom.

A RECEPTION for 200 guests in the Meadowbrook Country Club followed the rites.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Bianchi gown in candlelight satin. Styled on Victorian lines, it featured bishop sleeves and hand-beading in seed pearl and gold at the high neckline and down a front panel.

A matching headpiece held the bride's cathedral-length veil, and she carried white roses with baby's breath and stephanotis.

THERESA EHLERS, sister of the bride and maid of honor, wore a Victorian gown of moss green velvet and carried a bouquet of gold, bronze and yellow mums with yellow roses in the center.

Also in moss green velvet gowns were bridesmaids Susan Ehlers, Christine Lindberg, Julie Brakora and Sandra Chamberlin and flower girl Ruthanne Ruffing. The bridesmaids carried mums and the flower girl a basket of blooms.

Robert Lindberg, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Fred Ehlers Jr., brother of the bride, Edward Lorenz, cousin of the bridegroom, Joseph Pietro and Kenneth Karetka.

MRS. EHLERS wore an ice-cream silk worsted dress and Mrs. LORENZ wore a rose-colored dress.

The couple traveled to San Francisco, Los Angeles and Las Vegas for a two-week honeymoon.

They are living in Southfield. The new Mrs. Lorenz, a graduate of Western Michigan University, is a first-grade teacher in John Grace school in Southfield, and her husband is employed by the Ford Motor Co. designing Lawrence Institute of Technology.

St. Fabian Is Setting For Rites

the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Worthington of Miron Drive, Farmington, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Otis Harris of Violet Avenue, Farmington.

Monsignor Charles J. Malloy heard the couple's vows, and the bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDE wore a floor-length gown of silk organza over tulle, with alencon lace fashioning the bodice and bishop sleeves. Sequins and lace appliques trimmed the detachable train. A petal headpiece held her bouffant veil, and her flowers were white roses and carnations with foliage and blue-tinted stephanotis.

MRS. DONALD HARRIS (Susan Worthington)

Vicki Harris, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore an empire gown with off-white lace bodice and romance blue satin skirt and carried white carnations, edged in blue, and white roses.

Similar gowns with moss green skirts were worn by the bridesmaids, Carol Harris and Pat Thornton. They carried white carnations, edged in green, and yellow roses.

MRS. WORTHINGTON chose a celery green silk dress with matching coat and Mrs. Harris wore a rose pink knit jacket dress.

Marvin Lang of Farmington was best man. The ushers were Michael Fleck and Michael Worthington, both of Farmington.

After greeting 200 guests in a reception in the Northwest Sportsman Club, the newlyweds drove to Kentucky for their honeymoon. They will live in Farmington.

The new Mrs. Harris is a 1968 graduate of North Farmington High School. Her husband graduated from Farmington High School in 1962 and served four years in the U.S. Navy.

Program Director Named

The executive board of the Oakland Child Guidance Clinic, Inc., has announced the appointment of Mrs. Eleanor Keys as program director of the Mid-Oakland Child Guidance Clinic in Birmingham.

Mrs. Keys succeeds Daniel Lamb who has resigned from the clinic to go into the private practice of social work. Formerly a social worker at Pontiac State Hospital, Mrs. Keys has been social work supervisor in the North Oakland Child Guidance Clinic in Pontiac since 1961.

She has a BA degree from the University of Michigan and an MSW from Wayne State University, and is active in the Michigan Community Mental Health Assn.

and the International Platform Assn.

The Mid-Oakland Child Guidance Clinic is staffed by two full-time social workers, one part-time social worker, three psychiatric consultants, and a full-time psychologist. As a step in expanding the clinic's services, Mrs. Keys has announced that it will be open on Monday evenings.

Dance Club Chooses Officers

Officers for the new season have been chosen for the Cherry Hill Club and were announced at the club's first dance of the season at Lofy's in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clemens, are co-presidents, and the officers include Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brennan as membership, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cirillo, secretary; Mr. and Mrs. James McClellan, treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lundgren, entertainment; and Mr. and Mrs. Don Babb, publicity.

Anyone interested in joining the club may call Mr. and Mrs. Brennan at 642-4054. The Cherry Hill Club was organized in 1959 for couples who enjoy dancing to quality music in a pleasant atmosphere. Membership is limited to 75 couples, and a membership fee covers admission to five dances and dinner at the member's annual dinner dance.
