HOLY CROSS GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH LADIES AUXILIARY has elected Mary Brozak president for the 1988 term. Her vice president is Irene Hemmert. Both women are residents of Farmington Hills.

Other incoming officers are Tola Menas of Farmington, and Helen Siniaris and Audrey Kourtakis, both of Farmington Hills.

The society is a mainstay organization in Greek Orthodox parishes throughout the U.S. and Canada. Its main function is to provide moral and financial assistance whenever possible, whether it concerns children, adults, places or purposes in the Greek communities.

The newly elected officers will take their oath of office in September.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS LADIES AUXILIARY meets for its 75th national convention Aug. 19-25 in Chicago. The Michigan delegation will be led by its president Audrey Dillin and will represent its 34,500 members here.

Area artists exhibit at Meadow Brook

"Art at Meadow Brook" offers the best of both worlds when 104 contemporary artists put up their work for show and sale in the courtyard and gardens of Meadow Brook Hall, Oakland University, Rochester.

Artists from eight states will bring the art and beauty of today to complement the beauty, craftsmanship, design and fine art that embodies Meadow Brook Hall.

Among the artists selected for "Art at Meadow Brook" are five from Farmington and Farmington Hills.

Gil Yurasek, a Farmington resident named "Artist-in-Residence" by Farmington Area Arts Commission in 1980, will display her Raku pottery.

Joan Katkus, a resident of Alaska, is president of the national organization of 725,000 and will be presiding at the business sessions of the convention when awards are given for work in Americanism, Voice of Democracy, hospital and youth activities.

Broadhead-Farmington Hills Post 2289 will be represented by its commander, Fred Esser, and Irene Johnson, president of the local auxiliary, who will take part in a joint memorial service, a military parade, conference caucus meetings, elections and installations of new officers, and some sightseeing.

Esser, Johnson, Ira Wing, Ira Webber, Sy Simonson and Jerry Rodabaugh from the local post have just returned from taking part in the 40th annual Gold Star Mothers Service in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery. The service was dedicated to Maggie Jones, a two-term past president of the organization who died the day before the service in 1987.

WELCOME WAGON of Farmington and Farmington Hills hosts an informal "Welcome Social" at noon Wednesday, Aug. 24, in the Piedmontese Swim Club. The event is open to women who are new to the area for lunch, swimming and learning about the activities for newcomers the group offers.

Reservations are requested by calling Peggy DuPont, 478-6882.

FARMINGTON KIWANIS meets at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 24, in Sveden House, Uptown Center, Grand River west of Orchard Lake

Admission and parking are free both days. There is a charge for those who wish to take a tour of the mansion once owned by Mathilda Dodge Wilson. Refreshments will be available.

People traveling to "Art at Meadow Brook" from this area are advised to take I-75 to University Exit 25, about 25 miles north of Detroit. Drive to the university entrance and follow the signs to the mansion.

MOONDUSTERS meets for a dance party at 9 p.m. Saturday in Livonia Activities Center, 15218 Farmington Road. The event is open to single adults over 40. Admission of $3.75 is asked at the door, for dancing to a live band and refreshments.

NEWBURG SINGLES meets at 7 p.m. Sunday in Newburg United Methodist Church, 36500 Ann Arbor Trail, Livonia. Speaker for the evening is John Gross, Channel 7 newscaster.

WOMEN'S DIVORCE SUPPORT GROUP meets at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 23, in Lower Waterman Campus Center, Schoolcraft College, 18600 Haggerty, Livonia.

Speaker for the evening is Patricia Smith. Her topic is "Legal Aspects of Divorce." Attendance is free. No registration is required.

Season tickets are being sold at a discount for Commerce Township Area Historical Society's Travel and Adventure Film Series. This is the fourth year the society has sponsored the film series, which begins Oct. 9 in Walled Lake Central High School auditorium.

Season tickets for the six-part series are $18, or $9 for students. The discounted rates are available by calling Edna Eno, 669-1598.

Men, if you're about to turn 18, it's time to register with Selective Service at any U.S. Post Office.

It's quick. It's easy. And it's the law.

Speaker for the evening is Suzanne Miller, a delegate to the Republican Convention, who will tell of the convention process.

Miller will also speak to the Golden K Kiwanis Club at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 25, in Mercy Conference Center.

Both meetings are open to the public. Inquiries are taken by Lloyd Smith, 474-2431.

Sale or No Sale...Kramer will match those giant carpet chains any day with our everyday competitive prices!

At A.R. Kramer, saving money is never limited to a special event. Every day is like a sale day. Competing with the big guys, we have to match even their sale prices. But they'll never match our wall-to-wall service. The kind of highly professional, personal, family care that the giants can't take time to give. Come. See for yourself. The only thing giant about Kramer is our selection. Don't wait for a special event. Today is a nice day to save money.

MasterCard and Visa accepted

LEES carpets
Gold and Silver Label WEAR-DATED[®] carpets with Stainblocker![™]

SALE PRICED from $16⁹⁵ a yard

COMPLETE... Carpet, Padding and Normal Installation

These fine Lees carpets are so kid-proof, pet-proof, food-proof and even adult-proof, they come with a full five-year warranty. Sale ends September 10, 1988.

And we put the complete sale price up front. Not under the carpet.

At Kramer, you leave with the same sale price you came in for. Not like those others who start small and build big. Adding on all those hidden extras. That's not the Kramer family's way of doing business. The sale price we advertise is the only price you'll pay.
