

Chamber concert set

A chamber concert featuring flute, piano and cello will be given in Detroit and Bloomfield Hills this weekend.

Laura Larson, flute, Fontaine Laing, piano and Nadine Deleury, cello, are the musicians who will perform at 4 p.m. Saturday at CCS-Institute of Music and Dance, 200 E. Kirby, Detroit and at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at Birmingham Unitarian Church, Woodward at Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills. Tickets, $5 and $3 for students and seniors, will be available at the door for both performances.

Larson and Laing will perform works by Mozart, Kuhlau, Dopper, Muszynski and a new work by Takashi Yoshimatsu of Japan, "Digital Bird Suite." They will be joined by Deleury in a little known work by Eugene Goossens, "Five Impressions of a Holiday."

The three have been playing chamber music together for a number of years and are members of Tuesday Musicals of Detroit. Larson just returned from a concert tour of Japan and China with Kerstin Allvin, harpist, where they gave 18 concerts in 14 cities. They are going back this fall as special guests to Detroit's Sister City, Toyota City, to promote cultural exchange. Larson and Laing also performed together in Toyota City for the inaugural Detroit-Toyota Sister Cities program.

Deleury is principal cellist with Michigan Opera Theater orchestra and the Warren Symphony.
