Harry Langsford concludes career

The Wayne State University Men's Glee Club and Chamber Singers, directed by Harry Langsford, will present an Encore Concert at 8 p.m. Friday, Sept. 23 at North Congregational Church, 26275 Northwestern, Southfield.

The groups have just returned from a European tour where the Men's Glee Club placed second out of more than 60 choirs in the "Choir of the World" competition. The Chamber Singers took fourth place in the Folk Choir division, competing with choirs from 17 countries.

This is the last time Langsford will appear with these groups since he has retired after 43 years on the Wayne State faculty. He started the Glee Club in 1945 with nine World War II veterans. He has directed both groups to international prominence. For information, call the Glee Club office, 577-2618. No admission charge.
