Oakland has tough time despite OLSM turmoil

statt writer

The script suggested a different ending.
After all, St. Mary's College of Orchard Lake was without its coach. Glen Donahue had submitted his resignation Saturday after one of his players, Kevin Nice-field, was disciplined for allegedly violating what was thought to be a school rule. After a meeting with school president Dr. Ed Meyer Monday, Donahue withdrew his resignation and Nicefield was reinstated.
Donahue's son and assistant coach, Kevin, was on the beach for Saturday's home contest with Oakland University, Nicefield, a 6-foot-7 freshman forward who had performed so admirably at the National Catholic Basketball Tournament a week before, could not play. Combined with OU's dominance in the series — a 10-2 advantage, including a 21-point win last season — and the Eaglest "up and-down performances this season (9-9 entering Saturday's game), the odds sure favored OU.
And the Ploneers came through, but not without a tougher-than-expected struggle — right down to the firm as econds. Free throws, parthelarly by seator forward John Henderson, carried OU to 1st 101-99 triumph.

"WE'RE SUPPOSED to win this game," said OU coach Greg Kampe. "I think it's a bigger game for their players. But I didn't think we played bad. I thought they fust played great."

Henderson was the difference, without doubt. He scored a carer-high 37 points and grabbed 15 rebounds, making 10-6f-15 floor shots, and he set a school record for free throws converted in a game by making 16-6f-16 (former record: 14 by Brian Gregory last year and Chris Howa Chris 1895).

Howe in 1820 those free throws came in a row in the second half, when Henderson was nearly unstoppable. He scored nine of O'us first 11 points after the break, enabling the Pioneers to evereome a 48-45 halfum deficit and take a 58-54 lead.

Tony Howard gave them their biggest lead of the second half with a three-pointer with 12-98 left, making it 73-65. Baskets by James Lakes and James Curls narrowed the gap to three before Henderson went on another tear, making 10-straight free throws and adding a basket to account for 12 of OU's 15 points in a six-minute span.

HIS SHOOTING kept OU in front, 88-82 with 4½ minutes Joff. The Eagles never surrendered, but they never did catch the Pioneers. Bob Bringman's basket with 2:10 get them to within 91-90, and two Curtis free throws made it 93-92 with 1:48 to play.

After Henderson canned two more free throws, Curtis threw the ball away with :56 left, and it proved to be a costly turnover. Dave Hintz sank two foul shots to increase OU's lead to 97-92, and St. Mary's never got closer than three until Denny Butcher's meaningless three-pointer at the buzzer.

pointer at the buzzer.

"I hought we did an excellent job executing our offense carly," said St. Mary's Kevin Donahue. "In the second half, Henderson did a great job fro OU). What can I say? They did a great job setting picks for him.
They were very patient and they set a ton of screens."

That patience made OU's Kampe happy. A week earlier, the Pioneers were finishing a dismail road trip with losses at Saginaw Valley State and Grand Valley State.
"I put too much pressure on our kids," admitted Kampe.
"I told them those were big games we needed to win if we were going to win the league and go to the (NCAA Division II) tournament.

"TONIGHT WE showed patience, and that was not something we were good at before. We made 39 percent at Saginaw Valley and 31 percent at Grand Valley rushing our shots. We took our time tonight and really went to (Henderson). I think we learned a valuable lesson."

The patience the Pioneers displayed against St. Mary's paid off at the line. They shot 46 free throws, hitting a school-record 37 of them (old record: 33 set in '86) in raising their record to 12-4. Howard netted 23 points, Gregory had 15 (and four assists) and Andre Bond scored 13.

Bond scored 13.

Curtis' 26 points topped St. Mary's, now 9-10. Jim Butcher chipped in with 24 and Lakes had 19.

The Pioneers made 30-0i-53 shots from the floor (56.6 percent). St. Mary's was 39-0i-72 (54.2 percent), but the Eagles shot just 17 free throws, making 13 (76.5 percent)

The unbeaten Lady Occlois (7-0 in the Eastern Conference, 17-0 overall) had to overcome a couple of obstacles to post the victory. For one, Mott was far bigger, with three players J-foot-11 or bigger. But SCs quickness and fast-break nates, were down its talier opposed. Also, one basick was barrely over nine feet high, thanks the exhaustion of the control of the c

It certainly didn't bother Osborne. Or Lisa DePlanche, who scored 18 points and grabbed 14 rebounds. Or Michelle Dyksinski, who finished with 12 points and nine rebounds.

Dyksinski was named conference player of the week, mainly for her utstanding performance in SC's 48-46 win over OCC (20 points, 15 recounts, 19c steals).

ounds, five steals). Mott slipped to 2-5 in the conference, 7-8 overall.

Eagles rally to victory

A two-man attack worked well for Spring Arbor College's men's bas-ketball team Tuesday against visiting St. Mary's College of Orchard Lake, At least for a half.
Trent Allen and Troy Love combined for five three-pointers early in the game, rallying Spring Arbor from a 10-2 deficit to a 49-47 halltime lead. But they couldn't do it alone, not for 40 minutes. St. Mary's pres-sure defense turned the tide in the second half, and the Eagles pulled lead. But they couldn't so it arous, according to the Eaguer purcease turned the title in the second half, and the Eaguer purcease up to a 185-85 triumph.

Allen and Love each notched 25 points for Spring Arbor. But four players trached double-figures in scoring for St. Mary's, fed by Jerome Washburn's 22 points (and 16 rebounds). Jim Butcher added 20, James Lakes had 19 and Denny Butcher netted 12.

The Eagles, who evend their record at 10-10, scored the first seven points of the second half and were never headed. Free throws helped keep them in front: They made 18-0-26 to Spring Arbor's six-of-nine.

The defeat dropped Spring Arbor to 2-18.

OCC outguns Jordan

Oakland Community College's mens basketball team didn't pass up a chance to add a victory to its record Saturday at Flint Jordan. In fact, it could be said the Raiders passed their way to triumph. Bobby Dinges dished out nine assists and David Chaumley bad 11 in OCC's 108-102 win. They were also among the half-dozen Raiders to score in double-figures.

Dinges had a superb game, adding 27 points to his assist total. Chaumley had 10. Inbetween, there was Mike Bailey, 19 points (and seven rebounds); Toline Murphy, 14; Ron Woods, 12 (and 14 boards); and Ed Parane 11.

bounds); Toline Murphy, 14; Ron Woods, 12 (and 14 boards); and Ed Pasque, 11.

OCC led 50-48 at the half but was never able to put Jordan away. A 50-34 rebounding advantage aided the Raiders, who hit 43-of-87 floor shots (49 percent) to Jordan's 38-of-71 (53.5 percent).
