Almost Spring

"Almost Spring," a hand-painted black and white photograph by Kathleen Thompson, has won the Detroit Institute of Arts' "Arts and Flowers" poster contest. The work of the 29-year-old Farmington native will be used as the official poster for the weeklong festival in April, in the Institute. Holder of several awards, Thompson is a graduate of Oakland University and works as a media specialist for Madonna College. "Almost Spring" will be featured in a traveling exhibition through metro area art galleries to promote "Arts and Flowers," a joint effort of the institute and clubs affiliated with Michigan Federation of Garden Clubs.

Youth invited to join oratorical contest

An oratorical contest open to all boys and girls under age 18 is being conducted by the Farmington/Farmington Hills Optimist Club of Michigan. The contest will take place March 1 for girls and March 8 for boys. Medallions will be awarded to first-place and second-place winners in each division. Both first-place winners will be eligible for further competition. Top prize is a $1,500 paid scholarship.

The official oratorical contest subject is "Challenge The Summit." Contestants must speak on the official subject for not less than four minutes and not more than five minutes. Scoring is based on personal qualities, material organization, delivery and presentation, and overall effectiveness.

For information concerning the contest, contact Barbara Eilman, 851-4926.
