'King of Kings' shown the way it was intended

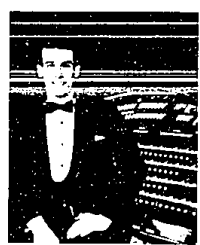

The next program in the Nardin Park United Methodist Church Music Series will see a return to the golden days of silent film. The classic Cecil B. DeMille masterpiece, "King of Kings," will be presented in the way in which it was originally intended, with magnificent organ accompaniment.

Jeff Weller of Chicago has carved a career out of studying and mastering the craft of theater organ playing and will be performing on Nardin Park's expanded and renovated Casavant organ.

Weller brings a superb reputation as performer in the great music halls of New York, Chicago, Denver, Massachusetts, California, Utah, Arkansas, and Ohio and has enjoyed widespread acclaim for keeping alive the tradition of the great silent movie classics.

The public is invited to this program at 6 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 5. There is no admission charge, but a freewill offering will be taken during the intermission. Nardin Park is at 19887 11 Mile Road.

Child care will be provided for children under 7 years of age, but again," said Judy Hand, music secretary for the church.

Jeff Weller

advance of a need for this service. Information may be secured by calling the church at 476-8860.

"Opportunities to see the great movie classics are rare, and to hear one accompanied by a talented individual on a magnificent instrument is an experience that may not occur again," said Judy Hand, music secretary for the church.
