• ANTI-THEFT DEVICES

A newly formed Novi firm, 4-M Industries, will serve the anti-theft security market with a line of passive deterrent devices for autos, trucks, boats and other vehicles.

Principal owner and president of the new company is A.J. Marsh, founder and formerly president for 15 years of ANJ Precision Manufacturing, Farmington Hills.

The Northville resident will be assisted in the management of the new company by sons Allen and Steven; Allen is vice president-sales, Steven is production manager.

Initially, 4-M Industries will manufacture and market a patented proprietary line comprised of three different anti-theft devices designed and engineered to dead-short to ground the electrical system of a vehicle upon any unauthorized attempt to start or hot wire the vehicle.

• NEW IN TOWN

Dawn Sassak, personal color and image expert, has "the secret" to looking and feeling better than you ever thought possible, no matter what your age or dress size.

Sassak offers private and group consultations through Color Associates, 24952 Ravine Court, Farmington Hills.

She also sets up "in-store" promotions with local retailers, beauty salons, nail salons, and modeling agencies. Call her at 471-3570.

• LIGHTING GALLERY

Orchard Lighting Center has opened a Koch & Lowy Lighting Gallery in its Farmington Hills store. One of the first and most extensive displays of its kind in metro Detroit, the gallery features an assortment of contemporary lamps and lighting designed to complement any room decor. They are displayed in a modern setting.

An exclusive Koch & Lowy dealer, Orchard Lighting believes the gallery will assist anyone planning contemporary lighting.

To promote the gallery opening, the firm will offer 10 percent off all Koch & Lowy products through February.

In addition to the Koch & Lowy Gallery and the Lighting Lab, Orchard Lighting maintains a staff of trained lighting designers who may be called in to help plan lighting in the home.

Orchard Lighting Center is at 28801 Orchard Lake Road, Farmington Hills.
