WHEN A JOCKEY has studied his ballet lessent well along with his relating team-nique it may some day pay off by allowing him to excepe serious injury. Such was the case of Jockey Glen Brogan who was abound the two-year-old filly Diddly Oxide at the Detroit Race Course when she baccame a little skiddsh and unseated her rider. When things calmed down, Brogan remounted, the assistant starter put the filly in the starting gate and Diddly Quick went on to win the race, paying $37.80, $10.40 and $5.20.
