Gabe Kaplan to appear at the Jewish Center

"Let Us Entertain You" is an inviting slogan of the Jewish Community Center of West Bloomfield, as the center presents well-known comedian Gabe Kaplan Saturday, March 4 at 8 p.m.

Since Kaplan made his first appearance on the Tonight Show 12 years ago, the road has been paved with success for the Brooklyn-born comedian. Kaplan began working and appearing at small clubs in Manhattan and Brooklyn, until he co-created and starred in the ABC-TV hit "Welcome Back, Kotter," which had a five-year run on the network and is now in syndication worldwide.

Kaplan made his motion picture debut starring in "Fast Break" and has been in several other feature films.

Still single, Kaplan is an avid sports fan. He participates in tennis and basketball. Kaplan is the national chairman for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Admission to the show is $20. For further information call 661-1000, Ext. 293.

The Jewish Community Center is located at 6600 W. Maple Road in West Bloomfield. This program is funded in part by the Michigan Council for the Arts and The Manny and Natalie Charach Endowment Fund at the JCC
