

Julie Lawton retained her title as city champion in the high jump with a concentrated effort like the one in the above photo. Lawton, who jumped 5'-2", contributed to Farmington's success as a team, helping the Falcon girls repeat as city champions in the annual track and field meet Thursday at North Farmington.

Glenn hurdler sets record in dual win

Ferlin Whitlow set a school record in the 300-meter hurdles Thursday, leading host Westland John Glenn to a 103-34 non-league boys track victory over Garden City.

Whitlow, who was clocked in 39.8, led the Rockets (3-0) by breaking Derrick Mitchell's mark of 40.7 set in 1988.

Steve Wiseley, meanwhile, figured in four firsts, including individual wins in the long jump (21 feet, 3/4 inch), 400 dash (54.3) and 110 hurdles (15.9). He also teamed up with Whitlow, Carl Lowe and Andrew Dobbins to win the 800 relay in 1:33.1.

Other Glenn individual firsts included: Jason Key, shot put, 41-1; Ed Terwelle, 124-74; Greg Anderson, high jump, 6-2; Dave Shaver, pole vault, 10-9; Dobbins, 100 dash, 11.2; Lowe, 800 run, 2:02.7; David Ryan, 1,600 run, 4:45.2; and Jason Nowicki, 3,200 run, 10:57.8.

Whitlow, Ryan, Lowe and Randy Seach teamed up to win the 1,600 relay in 3:38.9, while Ryan, Lowe, Joe Zawal and Jim Zurawski added a win in the 3,200 relay (8:42.3).

Brian Rosa was GC's lone winner, taking the 200 dash in 24.0. He also was a member of GC's winning 400 relay (48.8) squad.

REPORD THURSTON, paced by Karanisha Hughes, defeated Dearborn Heights Annapolis in his girls season opener, 66-56.

Hughes paced the host Eagles with wins in the long jump (15-9), 100-meter dash (13.3) and 200 dash (30.4).

Teammate Carolyn McCarty added wins in the 1,600 and 3,200 runs with times of 6:46.0 and 15:03.6, respectively.

Other Thurston girls finishing first included Jenny Hughes, 100 hurdles, 10-7; Samantha King, 400 run, 1:15.1; and Kristin Tunison, 800 run, 2:57.1.

McCarty, Tunison, Judy Wong and Susie Greca took the 3,200 relay in 12:10.0, while Wong, Greca, King and Tunison added a win in the 1,600 relay (5:19.7).

Meanwhile, the Thurston boys got off to a somewhat disappointing start on Thursday, falling to Annapolis, 82-54, in a boys meet.

Farmington girls capture crown

Reed's first-place finish in the long jump was something new for Farmington, which saw its point-scoring range expanded in the field events.

"We haven't taken many points in the long jump the last few years," Brown said, "and Jennifer Reed and Sue Gibson taking 1-2 really helped us."

Livonia Churchill boys track coach Fred Price will again compile the area's high school listings.

Observational coaches are urged to report their results to Price any evenings (after 7 p.m.) at 430-3559.

Schools eligible in addition to Churchill for the listings include: Livonia Clarenceville, Franklin and Stevenson; Redford Union, Thurston, St. Agatha and Catholic Central; Garden City, Lutheran Westland, Westland John Glenn, Wayne Memorial, Plymouth Christian, Canton and Salem; Farmington, Harrison and North Farmington.

"(Kiel) didn't feel well today, and I toyed around with the idea of not running her," Brown said. "I was pleased to see him so well. She didn't have a great time in the two mile but she didn't have to."

Gaul's victory in the 110 hurdles was impressive, Brown said, since she beat one of the area's best hurdlers, Harrison's Jane Peters. Lawton repeated as city high jump champ and let it be known she plans to contend for the No. 1 ranking in Observational. Trunk won the open 400 and Owczarzak the shot put.

Carrier, Maier and Angie Forge were on the 800 and 400 relays, which included Trunk, Nicole Tocco, Reed and Gaul.

"It was a nice afternoon for our kids," Brown said, adding the Falcons took the traditional victory lap and celebrated without going overboard following their lopsided win.

"We won but we showed some class, too," Brown said. "They were a happy bunch of girls and they should be. We won pretty handily and showed proper enthusiasm."

"MAIER was second in the 200, and she doesn't take too many seconds," he added. "She was our best person last year. Afterward, she went over and put her arms around Jennifer. That sort of typified the meet for me."

Additional winners in the girls meet were Harrison's 1,600 relay team and Peters (800 hurdles) and North's 3,200 relay, Lisa Rives (800) and Adrienne Moco (discus).

In the boys competition, North's Zalm Cummings won the discus. Joe Schmidt led the long jump. Brad Armstrong the pole vault and Jason Kocembo the 1,600 run. Farmington's Brad Moore took first place in the open 3,200. Lamont Hardge in the high jump and Jason Guting the shot put.
