Sophomore Gets Grant

Does the female criminal get off lighter than her male counterpart when hauled before the courts?

That is the question Oakland University sophomore Sarah L. Krauss of Royal Oak hopes to answer in a research project for which she was recently awarded a $175 grant.

Miss Krauss plans to examine court records from Detroit Recorder's court for a 10-year period and to conduct interviews with the Detroit district attorney, presiding judges and lawyers handling criminal cases in that district.

She was one of six undergraduates awarded OU undergraduate research grants.

Rosemarie Morse Is Wed In South

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kingston Coyne were making their home in Rolla, Mo., following their recent marriage in the First Presbyterian Church there.

The bride is the former Rosemarie Morse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Morse of Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. Kingston P. Coyne of Rolla are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Warren Rutledge officiated.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a gown of chiffon organza with a white lace cascading from the yoke to form a chapel train.

A lace and pearl headpiece secured her silk illusion veil, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations surrounding two white orchids.

Mrs. Stanley Ziomek of Farmington, sister of the bride, was the bride's only attendant. Her gown had a mint green satin skirt and dark green velvet bodice, and she carried a nosegay of white carnations tinted in green.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S brother, Gary Coyne of Rolla, was best man. Ushers were Michael Funderbunk of Columbia, S.C., and Stanley Ziomek of Farmington.

A dinner reception in Carney Manor in Rolla followed the ceremony, and the couple honeymooned in the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico.

Guess who I woke up with this morning?

Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass.

At exactly 7:15 A.M. Which is when my clock-radio goes off every morning. Good, honest music... it's such a delightfully refreshing way to wake up every morning.

Instead of a D. J. pummeling away at you. Tomorrow I'm hoping for Tom Jones. I bet he's great in the morning too!
