"It was totally out of our hands," Brown said. "We watched the relay and hoped for the best."

In light of the close finish, the combined five points that Davidson and Kerri Owczarzak scored were important, too. Owczarzak was fifth in the shot put and sixth in the discus.

"I told them they won the meet for us," Brown said. "Those five points were the difference in the meet. Kids think if they don't take first they haven't done the job, but that's not true. Every point counts."

Maier, whose track contributions were reduced by a hamstring injury, and Trunk might not be available to the team for the duration of the season due to the possibility of continued conflicts between the track and soccer schedules, Brown said.

"It's certainly a great group of kids," he said, "and not knowing if we're going to have soccer players makes it even more interesting.

"We knew going into the season we were going to have conflicts, so I'm not crying the blues. We had a wonderful experience (at the regional), and I'm real proud of the girls. They went out and did the job."
