

Pianist to play with Chamber

Pianist James Tocco will join Detroit Chamber Winds in a performance of Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue at 8 p.m. Saturday, June 3, at Orchestra Hall. The performance, "Jazz at the Paradise," will include selected rags by Scott Joplin, Gershwin's Preludes for Piano, and Poulenc's Sextour for Piano and Woodwind Quintet.

Detroit Chamber Winds has been praised by audiences and critics for dedication to artistic excellence. The ensemble has performed throughout the Midwest and received excellent critical notice in the New York chamber musician, Tocco has collaborated with the Cleveland and Fine Arts quartets and musicians such as Miriam Fried, Gidon Kremer and James Sklarke.

Tocco is regarded as a remarkable interpreter of the music of George Gershwin. Shortly he will release recordings of Gershwin's complete works for solo piano.

II. Robert Reynolds, Detroit Chamber Winds' conductor and artistic advisor will be on the podium. Tickets range in price from $10-18 and may be purchased by telephoning Orchestra Hall, 833-3700.

Scholarships awarded

The Birmingham Muscalt recently gave awards to three music students. The auditions for the 1989 Junior Club Scholarships were held earlier this year.

Eg-cho Chase, pianist, 9th grade, Andover High School, won the Founder's Award. Rachel Francisco, cellist, senior, Berkley High School, won the Past President's Award. Matthew Sams, pianist, 11th grade, Bethesda Christian, won the Memorial and Tribute Award. They were presented by Eleanor Whelan, Junior clubs coordinator.

The Charlotte Ruppel Memorial Voice Scholarship was presented to Timothy Hamman, a senior at Marygrove College. Chairman Albee En-gram, who coordinated the auditions, gave the scholarship.

Junior Club scholarships are open to all members of the clubs in grades 9-12. They include the Junior Muscalt for high school students, Moment Muscalt for middle school students and the Merry Music Makers for elementary school children.

Members perform for each other once a month in member's homes and other meeting places.

Scholarship winners perform before the Senior Club and this year's concert will be shown on Booth Communications Cable Television.
