Volunteers are called

Sheltering Arms Adult Day Care Center, a program of Catholic Social Services/Oakland County, is seeking volunteers to help dependent older adults enjoy therapeutic activities which stimulate mental and physical abilities. Sheltering Arms offers social and recreational activities daily in a pleasant and lively setting. Empathy and patience are the essential skills required in the volunteers. A wide range of volunteer opportunities include companion-type activities; assistance with mealtime, craft projects, and exercise. Cheerful morning greeters are wanted to welcome participants and families. Male volunteers are needed to lead a weekly men's group. Schedules are flexible and range from one-six hours a week. Volunteers receive orientation and ongoing training by program professionals in the field. For information, contact Terry Guiley at 646-1040. Sheltering Arms is a United Way Agency and receives partial funding from Area Agency on Aging 1-B.

Earns divinity degree

Robert Earl Atkins Jr. received the master of divinity degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary during spring commencement ceremonies.

President Russell H. Dilday awarded degrees to 430 students in Southwestern's schools of theology, religious education and church music.

Atkins is the son of Robert E. Atkins of Farmington Hills and Mary Atkins of Farmington Hills. He is married to the former Lynne Williams.

Southwestern, one of six seminaries affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention, is the largest theological school in the world. Each year more than 5,000 men and women train for ministry in Southwestern.

Brain-injured persons invited to day camp

Total Therapy Management Inc. will again be sponsoring a day camp designed for 8-25-year-olds who have sustained an acquired brain injury through accident, illness or injury.

Adventure Trails Camp will be at Camp Oakland in Oxford, Mich. The camping session will run from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday-Friday, July 10-21, for ages 8-17 years, and July 24 to Aug. 4 for ages 18-25.

The camp is an out-of-doors environment, wheelchair accessible with indoor facilities for programming during inclement weather. The camp is designed to develop a positive self-image through interactions with peers while expanding cognitive, social and physical skills that will support academic performance.

If you know of a child or young adult who would benefit from a camping experience, contact Total Therapy Management Inc.'s Flint Center at 735-3833.

Boosters hand out prizes

The Band and Orchestra Boosters of Farmington Hills' Harrison High School presented the awards of the annual music scholarship competition late last month.
