

B'nai B'rith lodge to honor Hills couple

The Louis Marshall Suburban Tivah B'nai B'rith Lodge will hold its annual State of Israel Bonds Tribute Dinner at 6 p.m. Tuesday, June 20, at Adat Shalom Synagogue, Farmington Hills.

Honored at the event will be Estelle and Harry Kaufman of Farmington Hills, who will be presented with the State of Israel's Freedom Award, in recognition of their support of Jewish and Israeli humanitarian causes.

Harry Kaufman has been a member of the Louis Marshall Lodge for 40 years. He is a past chairman of the lodge's fund-raising program and is president of the Benevolent Fund. A charter member of the Masonic Order's Crescent Shrine, he is a former member of its Marching Group. A life member of the Perfection Lodge, 32nd degree Mason, Kaufman is a past president of the Perfection Bowling League and a former entertainment chairman. He is also a past president of the Masters Plumbers Association.

Estelle Kaufman has donated many hours to singing for various organizations in the Jewish community, including the Adat Shalom Synagogue's Choral group. Active in the Louis Marshall Chapter, she has held the positions of chapter president, fund-raising chairman and Benevolent Fund president. She also was a member of the chapter's drama group.

Estelle and Harry Kaufman to be honored

The Kaufmans are both long-time members of Adat Shalom and Israeli supporters of the Israel Bond program, having held bond rallies in their home following the inception of the bond program in 1951. They are parents of three, the grandparents of 10 and the great-grandparents of one.

Chairing the tribute dinner is Max Kushner, lodge president is Gary Rich.

All members and friends of the B'nai B'rith Metropolitan Detroit Council may attend. There is a dinner cover. Call Carl Pearl, 838-5384, for information and reservations.

Hills officer named to POAM board

The Police Officers Association of Michigan (POAM) has announced the election of Farmington Hills police Officer Gilbert J. Kohls to its executive board.

Elections took place at the POAM Annual Delegate Meeting May 19 in Traverse City. Kohls was elected by voting delegates representing POAM members from across the state.

Kohls has 16 years' experience as a police officer — seven years with the city of Detroit Police Department and nine years with the city of Farmington Hills Police Department. He has held the position of secretary/treasurer of his local union, the Farmington Hills Police Officers Association, since 1985.

"I am looking forward to serving my fellow officers as a POAM Executive Board member," Kohls said.

"We are fortunate to have gained a police officer with Gilt's experience and ability as a member of our executive board," said William Powell, POAM executive board chairman.

"He has been an asset to the POAM as secretary/treasurer of the Farmington Hills POA. We are pleased that he has assumed a statewide leadership role."

The POAM is Michigan's largest, formally organized law enforcement officers' union, representing more than 175 units statewide. The executive board and officers are the elected leaders of the union. The board establishes the policies and procedures by which the POAM provides services to its member affiliates.

Special help for moms-to-be.

You are expecting, but you don't know what to expect. It's your first time. Your body is constantly changing. And so are your emotions. You have lots of questions and concerns. You would like help. But where can you find it?

Right here at Huron Valley Hospital. Our FirstBorn Program has been designed to ease first-time moms through planning, birth and postnatal care. Here's how FirstBorn works. A specially trained counselor works with you to plan your pregnancy and delivery (there are lots of options at Huron Valley Hospital). And she helps you select a doctor. If you don't already have one. At Huron Valley Hospital, we want to make your birth experience everything you want it to be.

The FirstBorn Program offers special classes to make you more comfortable during your pregnancy and to help you prepare for birth and early parenting. Monthly newsletters timed to your pregnancy provide tips on exercise, diet, health and fetal development. The FirstBorn Program also includes a 24-hour hotline, staffed by professionals who can answer your questions and provide reassurance. Any time. Even after your baby is born.

For more information or to enroll in the FirstBorn Program, please call (313) 360-3451.
