

Overtures attracts new audience

"Overtures," a new Detroit Symphony Orchestra support group of young Detroit-area professionals, will hold its first summer event at Meadow Brook on Sunday.

Following a format established during the group's initial events in February, participants will gather for food and conversation before attending the Detroit Symphony Orchestra concert at 8 p.m.

Taking a cue from the concert's distinctive Spanish flavor, Overtures plans a genuine tapas ("small plate") feast to be served by waiters in Spanish costume under a tent on the grounds of Meadow Brook beginning at 6 p.m.

At 8 p.m. the group will move to the Baldwin Pavilion for a DSO "Symphony Under The Stars" performance of music inspired by the country of Spain. Native Spanish conductor Jesus Lopez-Cobos and young American violinist Joshua Bell join the Orchestra in a program which includes Edouard Lalo's "Symphonie Espagnole," Emmanuel Chabrier's "Espana," Maurice Ravel's "Alborada del gracioso" and Manuel de Falla's "The Three Cornered Hat" (Suites 1 and 2). Tickets, $30 including the concert, are available by calling 567-1400.

On Aug. 13, Overtures plans an old-fashioned Picnic Feast before the final summer performance of the DSO at Meadow Brook.
