Team on way to finals looks for financial help

The South Farmington Midget Girls Softball League has qualified for the national finals. The job at hand now for the parents, for Paul Geary who is director of the South Farmington Baseball Tournament Fund, and for Lance Pesci who is the team's manager, is to get enough money to get the 8-10 year olds down to Florida and back again.

"Our goal is $4,500," Pesci said. "The 11-12 year olds are playing in Muncie, Ind. this year and those costs are less than half of what we need. We'll be playing just outside of Fort Lauderdale and we've got to come up with this money in less than two weeks."

The games are scheduled for July 27-30. Parents will be driving the 10 girls on the team to the games. The hand now for the parents, for Paul Geary who is director of the South Farmington Baseball Tournament Fund, and for Lance Pesci who is the team's manager, is to get enough money to get the 8-10 year olds down to Florida and back again.

The solicitation from individuals or businesses has been sanctioned by the Farmington-Farmington Hills Chamber of Commerce. Door decals or certificates of appreciation, whichever is preferred, will be given to the sponsors. Contributors will also be listed in the league's All Star game programs.

Inquiries are taken by Geary at work, 359-2110; or at home 474-2158.
