Thursday, July 13, 1989 O&E

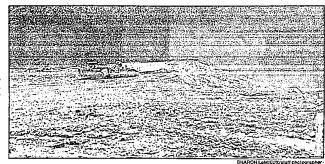

Work progressing on construction projects

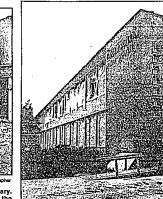

becent Rains halted work for a few days on two major Farmington school projects, but in haven't delayed the timelines for the projects much. Construction manager Bill mcCarthy, on site at Farmington High mcCarthy, on site at Farmingt

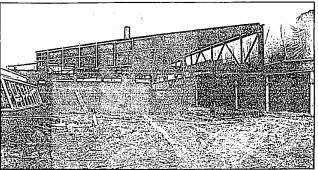

Money from the district's sale of property to Little Caesars Interna-tional in 1985 is being used to finance the project.

THE NEW elementary school, on 11 Mile just east of Halsted and the Hunt Club subdivision, is a 47-4 mile lion effort, approved by voters in a January bond election.

It is the first elementary school to It is the control of January bond election and the control of January bond election, and is expected to help the district, and is expected to help the crowding. In other elementary schools, The school is scheduled to open in fail 1990.

Scaffolding is up for the expanded media cen-ter at Farmington High, which now will jut into The expansion will double the capacity of the the former courtyard. To the right is the area center and add high-tech capabilities.

MW inkwell

Inkwell provides news about Farmington-area primary and secondary students and education issues. The calumn appears monthly as part of the Observer's "School Page," Send news items to: The School Page, Farmington Observer, 32030 Grand River, Farmington 18024. Include a telephone number where a contact person can be reached during the day. Items will not be taken over the phone.

SCIENCE FAIR
Kimberly Supron of Farmington Hills was the first-place winner in the senfor division of the 1989 De-retoit Edison Science Fair. She was given a trophy and $100 for her winning entry, "The Effects of Light on Seeds."

Seeds."

Seeds." Surpon, a student at Livonia Lady-wood High School, was among 50 De-troil-area students who received awards totaling $3,500 in the fifth annual contest. Edison sponors the contest to encourage students to pur-sues careers in science or engineer-ing.

SCHOLARSHIP EARNED
 Jeremy Rospierski of Farmington Hills was awarded a Presidential Scholarship to the University of De-

Scholarship to the University of Detroit.

The scholarship biased on academic achievement, is a four-year, half-toltion award, Rospierski, a recent graduate of Detroit Jesuit liigh School, plans to major in accounting at U.D.

O 3 SCHOLARSHIPS
Michael LaFleur, Robert Lynn and Timothy Maly, all of Farmingtion Hills, have received tull-tuition academic scholarships to Lawrence Tehnological University in Southfield.

• ART SCHOLARSHIP

Erika Furey, a recent graduate of Mercy High and a Farmington Hills resident, was awarded a $10,000 art scholarship to the Columbus College of Art and Design. The award came following a national portfolio competition held at the college in the spring.

spring.
Furey plans to major in advertising design. She is one of 127 students from across the country to receive a scholarship from the Ohio-based school.

3 GRADUATE
 Three Farmington Hills students
 Jelfrey Hermanoff, Daulel Hoffman and Uptal Patel — graduated from Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook/ Kingswood School during June 9 commencement exercises.

FRENCH VISITORS
Daniel Serlin, a student at North Farmington High School, and Paul Levine, a student at Harrison High School, both left for France July 3 to spend four weeks living with a French family as part of the Nacel
Cultural Exchanges program.

The purpose of the visit is to experience the culture and language
by sharing the dailyly life of a family.
Nacel is a nonprofit organizasummer homes,
Sortlin
Sortlin
When the summer homes,
American students,
American students,
American students
wellting for american students,
waiting for american students,
American family with which to spend the summer. Familles
withing to open their bome from July 24 to Aug. 20
should contact
Evelyn or Julian
Prioca 4 625-6841. "Lifetime friendships often result from the warm and personal relationallys formed during the four weeks of same from the description.

O MATH HONORS

AMERICAN STANE STANE

remotogical University in South
A recent graduate of Harrison
High School in Farmington Hills, LaFleur plans to major in chemistry in the university's College of Arts and Sciences.
Lynn will begin Lawrence Tech's mechanical enginering program in the fall. He is a recent graduate of Clarenceville High School.

Maly plans to study architecture.
He is a recent graduate of Detroit Catholic Central High School.

vision B of the American Regions Mathematics League Competition. The team of all-star high school math students competed ast month at Penn State University.

The fournment included 40 Division B teams and 27 Division A teams competing in four round of mathematical problem solving. MacNelli and other members of the state team were selected from the top 100 students of 2,000 who participated in the state competition last fail.

MacNelli, a recent Clarenecville High School, is also the recipient of a four-year Eurelta College Presidential Scholarship for his academic ability. The Scholarship is worth $14,000.

MUSIC SCHOLARSHIPS Devention of the control of th

Omgost of Laming.

MOOSE SCHOLARSHIP

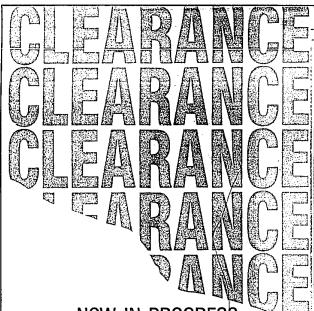

Kevin Joseph Williams of Farmington Hills, a 1989 graduate of Divine Child High School in Dearborn, is among the more than 50 students in the U.S. and Canada to receive a $1,000 Robert Dale Scholarship through the Loyal Order of Moose.

Kevina father, Burney J. Williams, is a member of Lodge No.
1620 in Dearborn.

1620 in Dearborn.

POSTAL SCHOLARSHIP
Zachary James Fryer of Farmington Hills is one of five area students to win a $1,000 scholarship from the Detroit Postal Employees Social and Recreation Committee. The scholarship recipient is the son of an account representative with the Marketing and Communications Department.

The Birmingham Brother Rice graduate received athletic and scholar awards in golf and bockey, particpiated in fund-raising activities for area hospitals and is an assistant coach with the Pec Wee Hockey Organization.

NOW IN PROGRESS

Hurry in for the best selections of spring and summer apparel during our storewide clearance for men, women, children.

• Designer dresses and sportswear • Dresses, sportswear, suits, pesigner unsases and sportswear * Dresses, sportswear, suits bridal, maternities * Handbags and other accessories • Lingerie * Women's and Miss J Shoes • Fino Jewelry * Menswear, men's shoes * Children's apparel • Shoes, accessories * Toys * Miss J and Mr. J apparel • Linens * Home furnishings * Accessories for the home

While Quantities Last.

Jacobson's

We welcome Jacobson's Charge, MasterCard, VISA, and American Express. Shop until 9 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, Until 6 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday,