Swim league has repeat champion

Continued from Page 1 The swimmers set 17 NSSL records at the meet, five on Saturday. In two separate events, the top three swimmers all broke the old record. Rami Karapatis of Orchard Valley set records in two events. He won the boys 13-14 100 IM (1:02.33) and the 50 freestyle (24.6), although his freestyle record (24.6) was set Saturday. Two other swimmers bettered the old freestyle mark. Woodside's big winners were Liz Huckabay and Jenny Vanker. Huckabay set a record in the girls 13-14 50 breaststroke (32.51) and won the 100 IM (1:10.27). Vanker set a new mark in the girls 9-10 50 backstroke (38.22) and won the 50 butterfly (34.66). FOR SURF CLUB, Traci Valasco took the girls 8-and-under 25 freestyle (16.6) and the 25 butterfly (19.01), while Christy Wickes set a mark in the girls 15-17 50 breaststroke (31.49) and won the 50 butterfly (29.81). Beach-Woods also boasted a pair of double-winners. Jamie Abbasso broke the girls 11-12 50 freestyle record Sunday (28.83) and added a win in the 100 IM (1:12.7). Brian Larkin set a mark in the boys 8 and under 25 breaststroke (19.78) on Saturday, then won on Sunday (20.22). He also won the 25 freestyle (16.35). Other double-winners were: Tracy Kley of Village Athletic Club, who set a record in the girls 13-14 50 freestyle (27.52) and won the 50 butterfly (31.57); Matt Bakker of Heart of the Hills, who set the mark in the boys 9-10 50 breaststroke on Saturday (40.0) then won on Sunday (40.8), adding the 50 freestyle (31.49); Eric Newton of Farmington Glen, who broke the boys 100 IM mark (1:02.68) and won the 100 freestyle (35.47); and Kerry Doran, winner in the girls' 15-17 100 freestyle (1:01.05) and 100 IM (1:09.71). The other record-setters included: Sue Ann DiMarco of Beach-Woods in the girls 11-12 50 backstroke (33.94); Surf Club's Matt Pawlick in the boys' 15-17 breaststroke (31.48); Adam Pawlick of Surf Club led three record-breakers in the boys 11-12 100 IM (1:09.4); Dan Hather of Orchard Valley in the boys 11-12 50 freestyle (27.65); Surf Club's girls 52-and-under medley relay team of Wilke, Jennie Gibson, Kathleen Whitledge and Erin Orlich (2:09.92); Surf Club's boys 64-and-under 200 freestyle relay team of Rich Burns, Matt Pawlick, Justin Orlich and Chad Patterson (1:40.46 Saturday, 1:40.5 Sunday); and Woodside's 40-and-under mixed 100 medley relay team of Stacey Hill, Camilla Anderson, Karen Kennedy and Jenny Vanker (1:04.78 Saturday, 1:06.21 Sunday). Since the strength of his team is mainly in his younger swimmers, Abbasso would like to build a dynasty similar to what Surf Club had through the late '70s and early '80s. "But I hope we always are as hungry as we were today," said Abbasso. "It's fun to win and it's fun to keep on winning, but if the kids think it's like a habit, that can be harmful to the team. Yeah, we want to keep going, but we don't want to be hungry every year we do it."
