

Fellowship To Help Fight Delinquency

A $2,500 grant for study in social service is again being offered by Alpha Xi Delta, national social fraternity for women.

This annual award was first made in 1959.

Those interested may obtain application forms from Mrs. Robert Chartrand, 34012 Aztec, Westland, 722-0666. Completed applications must be mailed before the Feb. 15 deadline.

youngsters. The fight against juvenile delinquency was chosen as the national philanthropy in 1968.

To be eligible for the award, an applicant must be a graduate of an accredited college or university, have a grade average of B or above, and be interested in pursuing a career working with youth to combat delinquency in the U.S.

As its Christmas project this year, Alpha Xi Delta alumni made tote bags for girls at the Plymouth State home and gave them a Christmas party.

Pagel-Jones Rites Held

Tempa Kaye Jones became the bride of Thomas Frederick Pagel in a Dec. 18 evening ceremony in the Central United Methodist Church of Pontiac.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bon-durant Jones of Pontiac. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Louis Pagel of Smithfield Avenue, Farmington, are parents of the bridegroom.

Officiating for the double-ring ceremony were the Rev. Carl Price and the Rev. Edward Jones.

MRS. THOMAS FREDERICK PAGEL
(Tempa Kaye Jones)

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her father, wore an empire gown of ivory peau de sole with seed pearl trim. A camellia headpiece held her elbow-length veil, and she carried baby's breath, stephanotis and red miniature roses.

ALISA JONES, sister of the bride, wore a red velvet gown for her role as maid of honor. Her flowers were baby's breath with red roses.

Identically gowned were bridesmaids Julie Lasley and Vickie Seay. The junior bridesmaids, Ellie Jones and Nina Chambers, wore red striped dresses and flower girl Michelle Wood was in ivory peau de sole.

Two trainbearers, Danny Jones and Michael Jones, and ringbearer Hans Varblow wore green velvet suits.
