Center marks 20th year

Editor's note: For 20 years the doors of The Community Center have been kept open through the work of men and women who volunteer to serve as its directors. The Farmington Observer introduces the members of the 1989 board to readers as part of the center's 20th anniversary year observance.

Jerrold Sundt
verold production at Maritz Communications. He is active in the Detroit Producers Association and the Aircraft Club.
He and his family have resided in Farmington Hills for 19 years. He is the father of five grown children.

Jerry Sundt has been a member of the board of directors of The Community Center Farmington-Farmington Hills for three years. He has served on the community relations committee, the financial development committee, and is currently chairing the annual fund-raising drive.

Innovating and implementing a revolutionary fund raising effort to increase community support as well as monetary donations has been his latest project at the center. He and his wife, Joan, have participated in many of the center's activities. The "Murder Mystery" events are their favorites.
Sundt is the manager of film and
