GOLD BARS
John Looney of Farmington Hills received a set of gold bars, signifying a second Lieutenant in the Army. He took his oath of office at North Georgia College in Dahlonega. In 1990, he is scheduled to earn his bachelor of science degree in recreation.

MILITARY CADET
Todd Boger of Farmington Hills was accepted into the U.S. Military Academy's Corps of Cadets as a new member of the Class of 1993. He received six weeks of rigorous basic cadet training at the West Point, N.Y., academy. Training in military customs and courtesies, drill and physical conditioning, tactical exercises, and the firing of weapons introduced cadets to military life with special emphasis on leadership skills, honor and character.

In addition to military training, the academy offers athletics, and an academic curriculum which includes engineering, basic and social sciences and the humanities.

Boger is a 1989 graduate of Harrison High School, Farmington Hills.

ADVANCED CAMP
Cadet James Sweeney Jr. and Cadet Andrew Raczkowski received practical work in military leadership at the U.S. Army ROTC advanced camp, Ft. Lewis, Wash.

The six-week camp, attended by cadets normally between their third and fourth year of college, includes instruction in communications, management and survival training.

Successful completion of the advanced camp and graduation from college results in a commission as a second lieutenant in either the Army, Army Reserve or National Guard for the cadet.
