Falling Leaves"

"Falling Leaves," a luncheon and fashion show to benefit Farmington Musicals, begins at 11:45 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 19 in Gen Oaks Country Club. Getting ready for the event (above left) are Rita Fushman who will be one of the models, May Arvo who is chairing the fund-raiser, and Anne Skowronek and Sophia Moraitis who are furnishing the hair styles for the models. Above right Allene Schuler, Arvo and Glenna Clogg choose accessories at The Dress Barn. At left, Skowronek puts the finishing touches on Fushman's new hair-do. Tickets are $18 available from Carolyn Disner, 229-6401.

Chautauqua Express stops at the center

Chautauqua Express promises a musical and educational journey for all to enjoy, at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 25 in The Community Center. Family entertainer Guy Sterlazzi will bring his Renaissance lute, mandolin, banjo, violin and guitars for an evening of sing-a-longs and storytelling. Children will learn how to play the instruments, and at the end of the show, they will listen to a recording of their musical endeavor. Ticket price for the Family Desert Theater is $4 per person or $12 per family. There is no charge for parking. For tickets call The Community Center at 477-8404. The center is at 24705 Farmington Road, north of 10 Mile Road.
