Changes at ONE23
Jim Boyle, 31, has been appointed executive chef of ONE23, a new restaurant in Grosse Pointe. A graduate of the Culinary Institute of America, Boyle is now in New York, Boyle assisted in the design of the restaurant's kitchens during construction. He worked as pastry chef after the opening. Boyle replaces Bill Watson who resigned to pursue other interests.

Swinging Sunday brunch
The Rhinoceros restaurant, with the cooperation Brennan's restaurant in New Orleans, has begun a French Quarter style jazz brunch. Brunch is served from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sundays at the restaurant, 265 Ropelle in Detroit's Riverfront district.

Rhino chef Mark Schartz met with Brennan's chef, Michael Roussel recently to produce a menu featuring some of the egg specialty dishes for which Brennan's is noted.

The brunch menu includes eggs sardou, poached eggs on artichoke bottoms and creamed spinach with hollandaise sauce; eggs St. Charles, poached eggs atop fried rainbow trout with hollandaise sauce and eggs Owen, poached eggs atop beef hash with marchand du vin sauce.

Paul Vornhagen provides the new age jazz sounds on flute and tenor saxophone.

For reservations call 259-2208.

Steaks in a seafood restaurant

Chuck Muer restaurants, known for its seafood menus have added something extra for customers. Chuck Muer's - Wayne serves up steaks for patrons who prefer New York strip steak over lake perch.

The Wayne restaurant has forsaken the group's specialty. It offers combinations of meat and seafood, such as shrimp tempura, snow crab legs or salmon steak.

Veison specialties

Event aids Legionaries

Members of the Legionaries of Christ of Bloomfield Hills are staging a gala fund-raiser featuring Frank Patterson, Ireland's "Ambassador of Song" 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 20 at the Rackham Building at Woodward and Warren in Detroit's Cultural Center.

Proceeds will support the work of the Legionaries, a congregation of priests and brothers that operates three universities, more than 50 schools, hundreds of youth centers and other ministries in 10 countries.

Patterson is a versatile entertainer, many of whose two dozen recordings have turned to gold and platinum.

Patterson plays opposite Angelica Huston in the film "The Dead," based on James Joyce's story.

Patterson, who hails from Tipperary, has entertained at the Shite

House, the Kennedy Center, Carnegie Hall, Radio City Music Hall, and St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City.

At Rackham, Patterson will be accompanied by the accomplished pianist and pianist Ely O'Grady, and talented violinist Ennan Patterson.

The Plymouth-based O'Hare Irish Dancers also will perform.

Honored at the event will be the Rev. Clement Esper, former pastor of St. Hugo of the Hills Church in Bloomfield Hills and special friend of the Legionaries of Christ.

Ticket donations are $25 per person, and $20 for seniors, including secured parking and refreshments to be served at intermission.
