Skippy Loved While Lost

FARMINGTON

After living with his owner for over 10 years, Skippy felt a little bit lonesome when he got lost recently in Farmington Township.

But the lonely feeling of this lost dog was lessened by the loving care of the family which cared for Skippy until the reunion with his master was accomplished.

SKIPPY was found Jan. 8 at 4 p.m. by Matthew and Todd Keller and Jeffrey Haase. He was welcomed into the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Keller of 32430 Nottingham Knoll, Farmington.

"He was found outside our home in the snow," recalls Mrs. Barbara Keller, "unable to move and almost frozen stiff. He was sick and had to be fed by hand for two days."

The next day, Matthew and Todd and their mother took Skippy to the Small Animal Clinic which treated him for a very nominal charge.

Class Previews For Parents

FARMINGTON

Parents of North Farmington High School students will be able to discuss class offerings and curriculum requirements at a meeting Feb. 1, at 8 p.m. at NFHS. Parents with ninth-grade sons or daughters are also invited to attend.

The meeting is designed to help acquaint parents with scheduling, pre-registration and required versus recommended curricula. Department chairmen, counselors and faculty representatives will make presentations and be available for questioning.

Those with ninth-grade students who will attend North next fall should find the program of particular value. There will be an opportunity to examine the content of new courses to be introduced at that time such as Art of the Motion Picture, The Bible as Literature, The Novel, Introduction to Poetry, Introduction to Radio, TV and Aerospace Science.

Students attended an earlier orientation session on Jan. 14 when two hours of the school day were set aside for the purpose of helping them with pre-registration decisions for the term beginning Feb. 1.

Faculty and department coordinators were present to explain each curriculum offering in five separate 20-minute periods.

Michigan State's victory in the 1970 Lobo Basketball Invitational was the Spartans' first in a holiday tourney effort in 14 tries.

Investigate Burglaries

LIVONIA

Investigation of a Livonia youth reported ANOL from the U.S. Army has led to the closing of 17 burglary cases, Livonia police reported.

Awaiting pre-trial examination Jan. 21 after being released on $1,500 bond is Eugene LaLonde, 17, of 15141 Sunbury, who police said implicated two others in a series of burglaries of business places in the city.

Also awaiting pre-trial examination is James Roberts, 18, of 14091 Bainbridge, who is out on $5,000 bond. A third youth, Joseph Hernandez, 19, of 15671 Greenlane, was in custody on a narcotics charge, police said. He is being held in Farmington Township.

According to police, the three were involved in burglaries of business places which included two in Redford, one in Farmington and 14 in Livonia, all in less than a month.

"Among the Livonia places they are charged with burglarizing are a professional office at Five Mile and Inkster, a Sunoco station at Schoolcraft and Middle Belt and medical offices in Buckingham Plaza.

Honor Adams

FARMINGTON

Navy Lt. (junior grade) Bruce C. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard C. Adams of 23815 Wilmarth, Farmington, was recently presented the Navy commendation medal aboard the destroyer USS Rupertus at Long Beach, Calif.

He received the award for meritorious service aboard the Rupertus during the ship's recently completed western Pacific deployment.

Be Patient!

Too popular? Public demand for the Huron River Canoe Guides has exhausted the supply, according to John R. Sterling Jr., information officer of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

There's good news, however, a new map is expected to be ready for distribution in the spring of 1971.

THE COST of treating and feeding Skippy was shared by the Kellers and two neighbors on Briarcrest Knoll, Richardson Levinson and Mrs. Luch Salberg.

Mrs. Keller put up notices in supermarkets and on school bulletin boards but had no response. A missing dog report was filed but the owners remained missing.

The reunion came on Jan. 13 when Mrs. Keller read a classified advertisement under the lost pets column in the Wednesday edition of the Farmington Enterprise & Observer.

Skippy remained at the Keller residence until Thursday when he was picked up by his master's wife, Mrs. LeRoy Atter of 32550 Rock Ridge, Farmington.

"She and Dr. Atter were most grateful for Skippy's care and very happy to get him back. He has been a family pet for 10 years," says Mrs. Keller.
