

Probus Judges Named

Three area civic leaders have been named judges for the ninth annual Probus Club awards for academic achievement at Wayne State University.

Awards of $500 each will be given to two WSU faculty members, according to Martin K. Stein, club president.

Probus Club is a service organization of Jewish business and professional men.

Judges will be Lawrence M. Carino, vice president of Sterner Broadcasting Co. and general manager of WJBK-TV, Detroit; John H. French Jr., president of City National Bank of Detroit, and Lawrence Gubow, United States District Judge for the eastern district of Michigan.

Club members serving on the judging committee include Harvey Grace, 2220 River side Dr., Southfield, and Louis Zuckerman, 31040 Pointe de Woods Drive, Farmington.

In 1918 trees were being cut and destroyed by fire and other natural enemies five times as fast as they were growing. By 1952, growth had overtaken cutting and other losses.

Farmington Socially Speaking

By KATHY ZISKA GR. 4-7261

I've missed all of you! I have no excuse except it was so easy to just goof off. It's been three weeks since I've last communicated with you.

Some of the mischief I have been in since we last were in touch is trivial. Like venturing where angels fear to tread kind of thing! There was a coffee in the home of Mrs. Eleanor Skillman on Forestbrook Ct.

The streets were fine but Forestbrook Hills, off Inkster Road, was shining with ice. I ventured out but changed my mind and turned back. There was no way I could get back up the icy hill onto Inkster Road. Salome's Gas Station came to the rescue via the Auto Club's road service and the young man had much in the way of road experience.

Would you believe, I've been safely driving for the past 25 years and this young man has probably been safely driving for the past four years. Let's face it, each one has a talent of his or her very own and mine isn't gliding on ice on wheels.

My talent lies in goofing off and laying low for three weeks leaving my readers wondering whether I've abandoned them!

THE COFFEE at Eleanor Skillman's was a "Let's Get Acquainted Coffee. Eleanor is president of the Farmington Musical.

Angels who did not fear to tread and attended the coffee were Farmington Musical Board Members Beverly Notestine, Anita Malette, Marilyn Truitt, Carolee McDaniel, Mary Walck and Faye Williams. New members getting acquainted were Barbara Jarvis, Barbara Kubitsky, Virginia Melkian, Sue Mercado, Carolyn Dinsler, Katherine Gaul.

There was an elegant engagement cocktail party in honor of Miss Bea Clayton and Patrick Kelly on Jan. 9. They are both delightful young people.

Bea is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clayton of Colony Park Drive and Pat is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kelly of Peoria, Ill. To greet her guests, young Bea was dressed in a full-length dark brown velvet skirt with matching bolero, over a long-sleeved beige silk blouse.

Mrs. Clayton greeted her guests in a stunning black crepe jump suit with a beaded midriff. There were approximately 90 guests for cocktails and hot buffet. Folk and Wilma Glatzer catered to the desires of the guests at the bar and the buffet table.

Some of the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bridenstine and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frazer Hilder, Mr. and Mrs. McGratty, Dr. and Mrs. George Evseff, Dr. and Mrs. Chet McDonald, Miss Joanne Jeffries and fiancé Rick Roepke, Miss Barb Steiner and fiancé Jeff, Miss Kathy Ferency, Miss Nancy Nightingale, Miss Nancy Orlando, Miss Polly Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Migliore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Don Orlandoni, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Melican, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Durkin and Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson.

Bea is a Junior at St. Mary in Indiana while Pat is working towards his master's at Notre Dame. The couple have plans for a wedding early next year.

Clear Windows

A tip for safer winter driving from Farmington Township's Chief of Police Irving Vakec: "Keep your windshield and all windows clear of snow and ice at all times. Make sure your defroster is working properly; replace streaking wiper blades. Don't try to be a 'peep-hole' driver."

Polk Delivering City Directories

FARMINGTON R.L. Polk & Co. of Detroit has started delivery of a complete, up-to-date, 1970 Farmington City Directory. The books are being delivered to its local subscribers. The directory contains four major departments along with an introduction and statistical and general review of the community.

First, the classified section contains a complete list of the names and addresses of business and professional concerns arranged in alphabetical order under their appropriate classified headings. The alphabetical section of the directory shows the name, marital status, occupation, and address of each resident of the Farmington area. Husband and wife are counted as one name, and 18 is still the minimum age limit of individuals listed.

The third section is the directory of householders, including a street and avenue guide. This section lists named streets in alphabetical order. The residents on every street are listed along with the telephone number at each address.

The numerical telephone directory is the last major section of the book. This is a list of every telephone number in order with the person or business who has the number listed alongside.

Musicale Offering Scholarship

FARMINGTON The Farmington Musicale, member of the National Federation of Music Clubs, has announced its 1971 scholarship competition for young musicians. Awards will be given in four categories: winds, strings, vocal and piano.

The competition is open to students of the Farmington School District; to those students who live in the Farmington School District but attend school elsewhere; to members of the Farmington Musicale's junior club. The Glockenspiel; and to children of Musicale members.

Entrance in competition will be restricted to those students in grades seven through 12. Not eligible are first-place winners in the 1970 scholarship competition.

Deadline for applications is March 1. Music to be performed must be memorized. Applications may be obtained from Farmington School District vocal and instrumental instructors or from Mrs. Donald Wilson, scholarship chairman, who may be contacted at 626-0101.

Races Snowmobile

FARMINGTON Art Christie of Farmington finished in eighth place in the 23-lap consolation race in the first annual running of the "Hangover Hundred," a snowmobile race held at the Owasco Speedway.
