Boosters say thanks for Great Scott Day

Barrie Armstrong, outgoing president of North Farmington High School Booster Club, presented a commemorative plaque to Great Scott store manager Al Slonim honoring the store at 13 Mile and Orchard Lake Road for its eight years of support with "Great Scott Day."

The school fund-raiser conducted twice yearly raises money for North Farmington High School student programs covering academics, clubs, drama, music and sports. The event is supported by school personnel, parents and students working in cooperation with store personnel.

For the entertainment of shoppers, the North Farmington Band and choir perform during the day, making this a worthwhile and fun-filled event.

During Great Scott Day for each

Private counseling will be available.

Registration information given by John and Claire Mueller, 729-5407.
