

Dwyer heads county chiefs

William Dwyer

Farmington Police Chief William Dwyer will become president of the Oakland County Chiefs of Police Association today.

The association has a membership of 65 law enforcement or law enforcement-related agencies throughout Oakland County.

It is dedicated to expanding and continuing interdepartmental co-operation, unity of action, and the exchange of information and expertise among the police officers and criminal justice agencies of Oakland County.

Dwyer, 49, also was recently appointed by Gov. Blanchard to serve as a member of his "Partners Against Crime Task Force." In September, the National Police Foundation selected him to attend a conference in Washington on drugs in the nation.

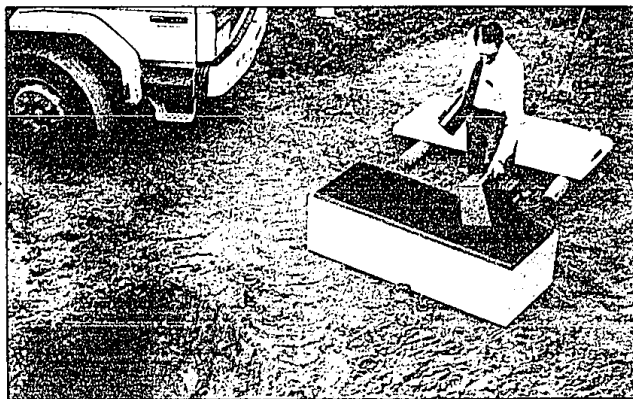

Time in a bottle

The culmination of a 100th birthday celebration occurred last week, as students and staff at Farmington High buried a time capsule with items reflecting the times.

The school celebrated its 100th anniversary earlier this year.

A 1989 sweatshirt signed by the Class of '89, a 1989 yearbook, faculty and student handbooks, pins, a photo album and $1 bill for good luck were just some of the items included in the sealed vault, donated by Bob Rock of Thayer-Rock Funeral Home in Farmington.

The time capsule vault was buried in the school courtyard, next to the media center, which is being expanded and revamped. It will be opened in 50 years — the year 2039. "My final commitment is to be there to open it," said principal Jerry Potter.

Teacher Pete Schaldenbrand, chairman of the school's 100th anniversary celebration, places the time capsule, which contained dated items, an older model computer in the time capsule. It will be opened in 50 years.
