clarification

In Bob Welbel's review of the Schoolcraft College Theatre production of two one-act plays in the Nov. 2 issue, Tom Savage was incorrectly identified as being associated with the culinary arts department. Savage is food service director at the college in Livonia, and food services prepared the food for the dinner preceding the show, not the culinary arts department.

Come dine with the people who have perfected the Sunday brunch.

There is a definite difference between lunch and Sunday brunch. Lunch is...well...just another meal at noon. Sunday brunch at Marriott, on the other hand, is a true dining experience.

Over the years, we have earned the reputation, rightfully so, of taking the Sunday brunch to an art form.

You may begin your buffet with complimentary champagne. Then we will tempt you with expertly prepared meats, exciting vegetables, innovative salads, and sinful desserts.

See for yourself. The Marriott Sunday Champagne Brunch is from $9.95 per person, children (under 6) Free, under 12 from $4.95. Served 12 noon to 2 p.m. (includes champagne).

Marriott Sunday Brunch. It's a perfect idea.
