Compuware wins tourney

The Compuware Junior A hockey team won the Pepsi International Hockey Classic on the weekend of Dec. 1-3 and captured the Father David Bauer Memorial Cop in

Pat Peake scored the winning goal three minutes into the second overtime as Compuware defeated the Wex-ford Raiders, one of Canada's best Tier II teams, 3-2 in the that.

The victory gave Farmington Hills-based Compuware a 5-9 record in the tournament and its second championship in three years. Compuware is 26-0-1 for the season. Father Bauer, a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, coached or managed the Canadian Olympie team for two decades and also received a gold medal for sportsmaship at the 1954 Olymoles. manship at the 1964 Olymples.

Peake, a member of the U.S. Select 16 National team, was named the most valuable player after scoring seven goals, including three game-winners, and adding five assists.

assists.
Winning an MVP award was nothing new to Peake. The Madison Helghts resident has won that honor four previous times while playing in Canadian tournaments. Peake has been projected as an early-round selection in the 1991 National Hockey League drait and is expected to be the first American taken. Peake's teammate, Eric Lindros, is the top Canadian prospect. Lindros was named the best forward in the tournament. He only played in Compuware's last three games due to school commitments but still had five goals and two assists, including a four-goal performance in the team's fourth win.

Shamrocks ice Cabrini the week in lopsided hockey game ahead

If Allen Park Cabrini ever sees Redford Catholic Central's hockey team

If Allen Park Cabrini ever sees Redford Catholic Central's hockey team again, it will be too soon.

More precisely, if Cabrini ever sees the CC line of Jesse Hubenschmidt, Paul Firronello and Keith Bozyk again, it will be way too soon.

That's what happens when a team is embarrassed 17-1, as Cabrini was by the Shanrocks Saturday at Redford lee Arena. And that's the attitude when a line combines for 11 of those goals.

Pirronello and Rubenschmidt accounted for four apiece; Bozyk was "limited" to three. Pirronello and Rubenschmidt and Bozyk each had three. Matt Keenan also had two goals for CC, which improved to 3-1 overall and to 2-0 in the Catholic League.

The Shanrocks blistered Cabrini with 57 shots. Cabrini, meanwhile, manged just 10 at CC goalies Matt Fennelly (first and second period) and Todd Henderson (third).

"We had a super night," said CC assistant coach Hon Repicky. "Offensively, nothing can go better. We kept moving the puck, and that's why the score kept going up. I think we moved the puck better than I've ever seen it."

STEVENSON 3, P.H. NORTHERN 3:Matt Cichy's goal midway through the final period salvaged a tie for Livonia Stevenson Saturday at Port Huron Northern.

The Spartans led 2:1 early in the second period, but Huron scored twice before the period expired to go up 3:2 Cichy's goal at 8:55 of the htird period, a redirection of John Brodhun's shot from the point (Kevin Bush also assisted) asswerd the point (Kevin Bush also assisted).

a reduction of one in Boulant's such as a period, with assists by John Fenceh and Cichy. B.J. Egilnton's slap shot from the blue line made it 2-1 in the Spartans' favor in the second period.

INVESTMENT ADVISOR ANNOUNCES Year-End Seminars toolc Year Ento-tonic Tax: Saving Investments for, 1989 and Beyond: call 642-6640

PREP HOCKEY
Friday, Dec. 15
In Franchisco Ex. Stevenson
of Ex. Franchisco Ex. Stevenson
Saturday, Dec. 16
Ped., of CC, se. Wy door (Ont.) Herman at Bedrad Re Arena. 8 p.m.

COLLEGE BASKETBALL Friday, Dec. 15
Mularina 3's Classe at Moethwood Institute 51 Marshins Northwood 6 pm. Tre State (Ind.) is a Concorda, 8 pm. State (Ind.) is Concorda, 8 pm. State (Ind.) is Concorda, 8 pm. State (Ind.) is Concordat (Ind.), 7 30 Mercy, Ford CC at Schoodraft (Inde.), 7 30 Mercy, Ford CC at Schoodraft (Inde.), 7 30 Mercy, Ford CC at Schoodraft (Inde.)

e Fland CC at Highland Park CC (women) Mand Park CC at Oukand CC (men)

Claudia Could End Up In An Institution. Her Crime Was Getting Sick.

it happens every day. In every community in the Tri-county area Someone like Claudia is forced to leave their own residence, give up their independence and be placed in a "home." Simply because they can no longer take care of themselves. Simply because no one is there to help them.

That's where CareGivers comes in. A United Way agency since 1965, Care-Givers serves thousands of persons just like Claudia, whose physical or mental limitations prevent them from performing essential personal and household chores

We bring our care right into their homes, providing whatever services are needed - at no fee; personal care, nursing services, household work, parenting education, just to name a few. Preventing those like Claudia from ending up in an institution...or children from troubled families being placed in a foster home. Encouraging their self-reliance. Preserving their dignity

But limited funding prevents us from reaching out to everyone in the Tricounty area who needs our care. That's where you can make the difference

Your eift can help brighten the holiday season for hundreds of other individuals just like Claudia who are now on CareGivers' waiting lists.

Please help us help them.

PLEASE SEND YOUR CARE-GIVING GIFT THIS HOLIDAY TO:

CareGivers Wayne County Service 2111 Woodward Ave., Suite 700 Detroit, MI 48201-3469

OR CareGivers Macomb Oakland County Service 0 1030 Featherstone Rd., Suite 207 Pontiac, MI 48058-1989

North wrestling duo perfect

North Farmington wrestlers
Matt Thompson and Adam Cook went undefeated through four dual meets Sautrday in the Invitational
bosted by the Raiders.
Thompson, wrestling at 145 pounds, and Cook, competing at 150, won all four of their bouts.
Tearmate Lucian Van Cleave won three matches at 135.
North didn't fare as well as a team, however. The Raiders won only one of the four duals, defeating rival Farmington Hills Harrison 48-27.
North lost 39-23 to Millord, 36-27
to Walled Lake Western and 34-32
to Lincoln Park. The Railspilters defeated Harrison, Millord and Western but lost to Westland John Glenn in the championship match.
In the Millord dual, Thompson

(1:23), Cook (4:30) and Van Cleave (4:40) planed their opponents. Aar-on Lawrence battled to a draw at 140, and 152-pound Rob Jamrog won a 9-8 decision.

THE RAIDERS had eight pins in the Harrison contest, half coming in less than a minute. Jeff Head (125) pinned in 19 seconds. Marcus Brown (130) 17, Thompson 38 and Cook 15. The other pins were recorded by Dan Cassidy (5:53) at 112, Van Cleave (1:26) and Jamrog (4:15).

Harrison had three pins, includ-ing Todd Lytwyniuk's 41-second fall at 171. Dave Prusinski (119) and Brian Ross (189) had the other pins in 3:01 and 1:01, respectively.

void.

Thompson decisioned his Western opponent 5-2, and Cook settled the issue quickly with a pin (1:29) at 160. The Ralders had three other

160. The Ralders had three other pins by 118-pound Joel Alattin (1.25). Marcus Brown (2.58) and 171-pound Bill Brown (1.25). Thempson pinned Lincoln Park's 145-pounder in 5:15, and Coek won a 5-0 decision. Cook scored a near fall but, had he been able to pin, would have produced the points needed to overtake the 'Splitters

In addition. Cassidy won by forfeit, Van Cleave had a pin (1:45), Jared Lawrence won by default at 140 and heavyweight Bob Chica posted a 51-second pin.

Rocks hold their own in tourney

Steve Burlison, who nearly breezed through the tour-

Plymouth Salem is supposed to have one of the best wresting teams in Observerland, and the Rocks provided proof of that Saturday.

Salem finished third, behind two teams annually among the state's best, in the Temperance Bedford Institutional.

The host school and defending Class A champion was memorial to the state's best, in the Temperance Bedford Institutional.

The host school and defending Class A champion was memorial to the state's best, in the Temperance Bedford Institutional.

The host school and defending Class A champion was memorial to the state's best, in the Temperance Bedford Institutional to the state's best, in the Temperance Bedford Institutional to the state's best, in the Temperance Bedford Institutional to the state's best, in the Temperance Bedford Institutional to the champion of the memorial to the state's best, in the Case Blast years, 5-3.

Berian Burlison bad a toughter time in the champion, in the carly matches, too, with a pair of quick pins. He stuck Dan Timmal of Haultington North in 58 seconds and Tom Perryman of Hazel Park in 43 seconds.

Burlison was dominant in the early matches, too, with a pair of quick pins. He stuck Dan Timmal during from the Schoick, who was fifth in Class B last year, 5-3.

Elmi coach Ron Krueger said. "We might have been alone to get the term of the time in the champion, the champion was fifth in Class B last year, 5-3.

Elmi Coach Ron Krueger said. "We might have been alone to get the term of the time in the champion was fifth in Class B last year, 5-3.

Elmi Coach Ron Krueger said. "We might have been alone to get the term of the champion of the champion of the champion was fifth in Class B last year, 5-3.

Elmi Coach Ron Krueger said. "We might have been alone to get the term of the champion of the carly matches, and self-size of the champion of the champion was fifth in Class B last year, 5-3.

Elmi Coach Ron Krueger said. "We might have been alone to get the term of the champion of the olation final.

