Aside from the beginning of winter classes, there are two major events taking place at Farmington Community Center this coming week.

Tony Spina, Detroit Free Press photographer, will present a slide lecture on "Press Photography" Wednesday, Jan. 27, at 8 p.m.

At the Center

Antique fanciers will be able to explore a new area when Peeper Lettner displays and talks about his antique jewelry at a noon luncheon on Friday, Jan. 29.

The camera of Tony Spina has won him 285 prizes in major photographic contests. It has helped him to make friends with presidents, sultans, kings and queens.

Pope Paul VI bestowed on Spina the title "Knight of St. Gregory the Great," the highest honor to be received by laymen of the Catholic Church.

Born in Detroit, Spina graduated from the Detroit Institute of Technology and became chief photographer for the United States Navy during World War II.

Books he includes "The Making of the Pope," "The Pope and the Council," "This was the President" and his latest, "Press Photography."

PEARCE LETTNER is a Canadian by birth, but acquired part of his education in Michigan and attended England's Cambridge University where he studied gemology.

As an international jeweler, he is known to museums and collectors and has offices in Windsor, London, England; Paris and Milan. He has designed and manufactured silverware for the Canadian government's official residences abroad.

Reservations for these programs may be made by calling 474-6873 or 474-2999.

Disney Benefit Is Feb. 11

A benefit performance of Disney on Parade is being held to raise money for Community Living Centers, a group of concerned persons working with mentally retarded young adults.

The benefit performance will be held Feb. 11 beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the Olympia Stadium at 5920 Grand River, Detroit.

The event is being sponsored by the Oakland County Association for Retarded Children to benefit the Community Living Centers, which work to promote and establish homes for the moderately retarded adult.

Purpose is to give the adult as normal a life style as possible and to provide the friendly and meaningful relationship which is usually missing in the life of the average retardate.

Among the Farmington persons selling tickets for Disney on Parade is Dave Comfort, president of the Rotary Club of Farmington. Comfort, also executive director of the Farmington Area YMCA, can be contacted at 474-3232.
