police/fire calls

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week:

• indecent exposure
A clean-cut man dressed in a business suit and sitting in a car exposed himself to two 14-year-old girls walking home from school at St. Francis and Byron at 2:15 p.m. Wednesday.

As they neared the small, tan, newer-model car parked at a stop sign at the intersection, the man said to one of the girls that she looked familiar. When she asked him his name, he said, "Jerry."

As the girls got closer, one of them saw him exposing himself. The girls ran to one of their homes nearby while he waved and drove off, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

• thefts reported
A VCR and a camcorder valued at $1,800 were reported stolen from a house on Whittington, Farmington Hills, Jan. 9.

A radio, television and cassettes valued at $1,040 were reported stolen from a car parked on Castlereagh, Farmington Hills, Jan. 9-10.

Two cellular phones valued at more than $2,000 were reported stolen from cars parked at Strawberry Lane Apartments, Farmington Hills, Jan. 9-10.

Lumber valued at $1,400 was reported stolen from a construction site on Burton at Essex Club Condominiums, Farmington Hills, Jan. 9-10.

Car speakers and an amplifier valued at $682 were reported stolen from a car parked on Ruth Street, Farmington Hills, Jan. 10.

A video recorder, cassettes and jewelry valued at $2,050 were reported stolen from a house on Rockwell, Farmington Hills, during a break-in Jan. 10. The incident occurred about 10 p.m. A total of $45 damage was done to the living room window, which was smashed.

A gas furnace valued at $1,200 was reported stolen from a house under construction on Kenloch, Farmington Hills, Jan. 10-11.
