

Harbinger dancers Bruce Rabey and Laurie Zabele are shown in a sequence from "Detroit Personals" choreographed by Di-ann Sichel.

Harbinger celebrates with concert tour

Harbinger Dance Company will give a one-night only performance at 8 p.m. Friday at Smith Theater, Oakland Community College-Oakland Ridge campus, Farmington Hills. The concert is part of Harbinger's 20th Season Celebration Tour.

Two new works will be premiered — "Commissarius of Chaos" by Ann Arbor based choreographer Jessica Fogel and "Barking," by New York choreographer Catlin Cobb. Fogel's work reflects on the relationship between order and chaos and features the entire company. Bobb's "Barking" is a comic, yet poignant duet for male dancers, attempts to capture the universal spirit of male energy. Tickets are on sale now at the Smith Theater box office, 471-7700, $10 in advance and $12 at the door.

Grant meeting slated

Michigan Council for the Humanities has announced that it is interested in sponsoring programs that deal with history, literature, ethnic studies, foreign language and culture.

MCH, the state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities, awards grants to non-profit organizations and institutions throughout Michigan to develop and implement public humanities programs.

MCH will host a public meeting and grant writing workshop 10 a.m. to noon on Monday, Feb. 5 at the Student Union at Michigan State University in East Lansing. Program plans will be presented for public discussion and comment. The public meeting will be immediately followed by a Grant Writing Workshop for all organizations interested in applying to MCH only.

The public meeting and workshop are free of charge and open to the public, but space is limited.

For information and reservations contact MCH, 1407 S. Harrison #30, East Lansing, 48823, 517-355-0160.

If you're thinking of buying a condominium, find out if it's a "hot idea."

Bob Rosen, Vice President of Flo Co Supply Inc., a wholesale heating and cooling company, lives in Cambridge Village at The Heathers. Joan Rosen is a Professor of English at Oakland University. "I think location attracted us first," she says. "But builder reputation played a big part in our decision to buy." The Rosens needed space, but didn't want to continue with care and upkeep of their large single family home, so condominium benefits were especially attractive.

"We love the water," says Joan, "and looking out on Heathers Lake offers a serenity that we both need after our working days." Bob offered the fact that they like to travel, "and with condominium living you have peace of mind."

Bob deals with a lot of builders in his business, and feels that Robertson Brothers offer quality that is outstanding.

"We've never run hot and cold about our move," he says. "We know we made the best choice."
