Volunteer finds Mercy Corps a challenge

Helen Rice — a widow, World War II Navy Communications Officer, news reporter and social worker — now finds herself giving a year of volunteer service with Mercy Corps.

Rice, who formerly lived in Farmington Hills, makes her home in Mesa, Ariz. Saying yes to Mercy Corps meant leaving her home in Mesa and coming to do full-time volunteer work in Lansing.

Mercy Corps is sponsored by the Sisters of Mercy and is a volunteer program for people over the age of 21. Volunteers like Rice live in community, receive room, board, and a small stipend and health insurance.

While volunteer sites are scattered across the United States, Rice's interests and talents fit in the Lansing site.

St. Lawrence Hospital and the Michigan Housing Coalition are her places of ministry.

DINO-MIGHT!

We'd like you to meet Stego, Cera, and Pter, just three of the 20 life-size prehistoric pals in the Dino-Might! exhibit coming to Oakland Mall on February 12th. Stego the stegosaurus is 20 feet long, Cera is over 17 feet long, and Pter the flying pterodactyl has a 26-foot wingspan! They're life-like as well as life-size, giving your kids a chance to find out how real dinosaurs looked and lived. And with the exhibit we'll have dinosaur story hours and the Judith Heiken puppet show, making the event both fascinating and fun.

Don't miss our Dino-Might! exhibit, Monday, February 12th through Sunday the 25th at Oakland Mall, where you'll meet 20 new dino-pals! And don't miss the Judith Heiken puppet show on Saturday, February 17th at 11 a.m., 1 p.m., 3 p.m. & 5 p.m. and Sunday, February 18th at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m.
