A 31-year-old Brighton man was ticketed for operating under the influence of liquor and fleeing and eluding in connection with a traffic incident at 8:40 p.m. Sunday.
According to a Farmington Hills police report:
Responding to a drunk driving complaint at Middlebelt and Shiloh, officer Matt Koehn came upon a speeding car eastbound on Liberty. At Middlebelt, it blew a stop sign and headed south.
Koehn activated his emergency lights and siren as the car weaved along Middlebelt, then Independence, before it stopped.

The driver was bleeding from his face, nose, mouth and hands. He said he had been beaten up by drug dealers in Detroit.
He later ran from the emergency room at Botsford General Hospital and hopped a brick wall but was soon caught and taken to the police department. When he was again taken to Botsford, he was accompanied by two officers.
His passenger, a 29-year-old

Brighton man, was arrested on an outstanding warrant out of Detroit.
